- ① In Luke 19:44, what do you think “the time of God’s coming” meant for Jerusalem — and why did they miss it?
- ② How can someone be surrounded by holy things and still fail to recognize the Holy One?
- ③ Where might we be so certain about what God ought to look like that we miss Him when He shows up differently?
- ④ What has God’s nearness ever exposed in you — something you might have preferred to ignore?
- ⑤ Hebrews says, “Today, if you hear His voice...” What makes “today” weight-bearing?
- ⑥ Lent is described as making space to notice grace. What would that actually look like in your life right now?
- ⑦ If this were a moment you could miss, what would missing it look like?
