- 1 What part of Zechariah’s story do you relate to most—the waiting, the silence, or the breakthrough? Why is that?
- 2 Why do you think God used silence, not punishment, to shape Zechariah’s faith?
- 3 What prayer in your life feels like Zechariah’s decades-long prayer? How can everyone pray with you?
- 4 How does Zechariah’s doubt help you be honest about your own?
- 5 What does it mean to “serve Him without fear” in your everyday life? Examples?
- 6 Where do you feel God guiding your feet into “the path of peace”?
- 7 What part of Zechariah’s song do you want to carry with you into the week?
