Maundy Thursday

Welcome to Maundy Thursday worship. "Maundy" comes from the Latin word meaning "mandate" or "commandment." Today, as we recall the commandment given by Jesus to his disciples to love one another, may we tell the story of Jesus, and remember him through the bread and the wine, his body and his blood.

PRELUDE

WELCOME

LITANY

A table is set before us. A feast is prepared for us.
A meal of bread and wine, of meat and bitter herbs.
The Lord calls us to this supper of remembrance.
The Lord calls us to serve and to be served.
As we break the bread and share the cup,
our understanding may fail us.
But we will never forget Christ's example.
We will never forget the full extent of his love.

HYMN

Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing (vs. 1, 3, 5, 6)

ELW 886

Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and king, the triumphs of his grace!

The name of Jesus charms our fears and bids our sorrows cease,
Sings music in the sinner's ear, brings life and health and peace.

Look unto him, your Savior own, O fallen human race!
Look and believe through faith alone, be justified by grace!

To God all glory, praise and love be now and ever giv'n
By saints below and saints above, the church in earth and heav'n.

PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray...

Gracious and Holy God,

We come and remember the love of Jesus, gathered at the table with his friends.

We come to receive from Christ the bread of life and the cup of blessing.

We come to receive the challenge of the new commandment: "Love one another."

We come to travel with Jesus on the way to the cross, so that our Easter "Alleluia" will take on new meaning.

Let us worship together and reflect upon the life of Christ, that we might remember.

Amen

READING

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

John 13:1-17, 31b-35

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already decided that Judas son of Simon Iscariot would betray Jesus. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from supper, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him.

He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean." After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had reclined again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, slaves are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ

HYMN

Love Consecrates the Humblest Act
(Tune: Amazing Grace)

ELW 360

Love consecrates the humblest act, and haloes mercy's deeds;
It sheds a benediction sweet and hallows human needs.

When in the shadow of the cross, Christ knelt and washed the feet
Of his disciples, he gave us a sign of love complete.

Love serves and willing stoops to serve; what Christ in love so true
Has freely done for one and all, now let us gladly do.

OFFERING

*We gather as a people of God, in the presence of God, to offer up our thanks and praise.

INTRODUCTION TO THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

People of God,
recall on this night the words Jesus offered up as he ate with his disciples. Jesus invites us to gather at this table. Taking on the nature of servant, tonight he looks after those who gather here with the same level of devotion that he showed to his disciples that night.

Thanks be to God, and to God's Son, our Lord.

PRAYERS

Prayer response: God of grace, hear our prayer.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Today we commune together as members of the body of Christ, and at this table we commit ourselves to the service of one another and the care of God's people on earth.

Come, gather round the table, this is the Lord's table.

Jesus invites you to come as you are, to join with your siblings, to share bread and wine.

At this table we will remember all that Jesus has done for us, we will remember that we are united as one,
part of the worldwide body of Christ.

At this table we will remember our faults and our failings and that, despite them, God still loves us and calls us to serve.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

COMMUNION PRAYER

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.
Amen

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

All are welcome to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion. Non-communing children are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing. Gluten/peanut free bread is available - please indicate this preference to the server. White grape juice is available and can be found in the cups toward the center of the tray. If you are unable to come forward, we will bring the sacrament to you in your seat. Please indicate this preference as the communion minister walks down your aisle.

COMMUNION MUSIC

Lamb of God

ELW p. 191

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world;
Grant us peace, grant us peace, Lamb of God.

HYMN

We Come to the Hungry Feast

ELW 479

We come to the hungry feast hungry for a word of peace.
To hungry hearts unsatisfied the love of God is not denied.
We come, we come to the hungry feast.

We come to the hungry feast hungry for a world released
From hungry folk of ev'ry kind, the poor in body, poor in mind.
We come, we come to the hungry feast.

We come to the hungry feast hungry that the hunger cease,
And knowing, though we eat our fill, the hunger will stay with us;
Still we come, we come to the hungry feast.

COMMUNION BLESSING AND PRAYER

We give thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us through the healing power of this gift of life. We pray that we would be strengthened by this gift – in faith toward you and in love for each other. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen
