Something New: Room 113

Sunday morning young adult small group that meets in a relaxed setting. Ed and Meda Sterrett lead informal conversations on personal spiritual growth and its relevance to “adulting” - relationships, parenting, and careers. A variety of resources are used for starting points including videos, personal experience, current events, and books that reflect Jesus’ message. Come as you are spiritually, physically, and emotionally.

Foundations: Room 124

Study of the Bible and discussion of how it addresses life today.

Stewards and Open Door Classes: Rooms 105-109 – currently meeting together

Discussion-based Bible Study covering an array of topics. LeJeanna Raymond facilitates while members give input and ask questions. The goal is to create opportunities to help class members become more effective Christians.

Seekers: Room 159

This is a warm and welcoming class where members feel safe and confident in sharing their trials, challenges, and tribulations. Kenny Paciocco teaches using scriptures and topics relevant to life events of the prior week. The Seekers genuinely love and care for one another and endeavor for this class to be a special place to gather, share, and worship Jesus Christ.

Footprints: Room 114

Pam Paciocco & Jerry Parr lead this class with material from the quarterly Smyth-Helwys material. Group members endeavor to live biblically and encourage each other in the Lord.

Koinonia: Room 158

A close-knit group, this class was founded in 1975 and enjoys welcoming new members. The Koinonia class studies the Bible with the help of Foundation Adult Bible Study lesson material. Led by Carl Brown and group leaders.

New Visions: Room 112

Service-oriented and ready to learn, this class is involved in projects at Derbyshire and in our community, while also engaging deep study and discussion of the Bible and Christian literature. Discussions are guided by rotating members.

Sojourners: Room 122

This class studies scripture together on Sundays and seeks to love one another beyond the classroom.

Small GroupsSunday Evening Bible Study: Dysert Home

Bible study that meets Sunday evenings at 6:30 PM at 1425 Schroeder Rd., Powhatan. Led by Denise and Rob Dysert and meets in their home for food, fellowship, and learning. This small group focuses on growing relationships with God and studying the Bible through a variety of sources, including podcasts, travel experiences, and books.

Tuesday Women's Bible Study: Room 105

Bible study for women that meets on Tuesday mornings from 10:30-12:00 PM in the Rooms 105-109. Books and corresponding videos are used to facilitate conversation. This group meets in 8-week sessions twice a year, usually in the spring and the fall.

Men's Breakfast Fellowship: Youth Room or On Location

This group meets for a time of prayer, fellowship, and breakfast the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00 AM. During the summer months, they meet in a local restaurant, such as Eggs Up Grill.
