wids

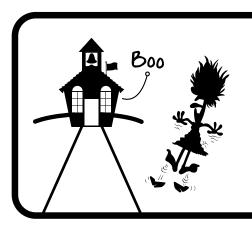

SACK to SACH

week 1

School is back in Session! We love the beginning of a new school year because everything seems to be new. Everything from last year has changed! This can be both exciting and a little scary at the same time!

The fear of going to school is called Didaskaleniophobia!

Ironically you need to go to school just to learn how to pronounce it!

What is changing for you this year? Write them down!

Is sometimes...

READING 'RITING 'RITHMATIC

at othertimes is...

REDUCE REUSE RECYCLE

But for this lesson is...

On the Next Page

The Three R's

Rules, Responsibilities and Relationships

These 3 R's can apply to just about every situation we find ourselves, at home, school, church, sports, a friends house, even at the mall. Rules, Responsibilities and Relationships are around us every where we go and so we thought it would be essential to talk about these things and see what God has to say about them too.

Memory Verse

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind;

and,

'Love your neighbor as vourself."

Luke 10:27

So now that we know which rules are most important to God, how can they help with us obeying rules that...

Keep Us Safe by Warning us of Danger

Jesus Told Us..

When someone asked
Jesus which one of all God's rules was the most important,
He replied with the verse
we are using for our memory verse.

HE GAVE THEM
TWO RULES!

God really wants us to

LOVE HIM and to LOVE

PEOPLE by treating them

how we want to be treated

Help Make Things Fair for Everybody

Are a Guide for Relationships

At the Heart of it All

Let's be real. The word RULES can sound sound bad. For a lot of us, the word RULES sounds like stuff we have to do that we really don't want to do. But God's rules are not like that. Thay are meant to show us how to live the good and right way that God lives. And what's at the heart of that? As you finish the maze below, you will come across words from our memory verse!

