What is in the Bible?

Jonah is probably the most famous of the Minor Prophets. Being swallowed by a fish is a pretty memorable story. Like all of the Minor Prophets, Jonah's story points us towards our need for repentance and God's forgiveness. In the story of Jonah, we see examples of repentance by both Jonah and the people of Nineveh. We see an example of Jesus' sacrificial death when Jonah is swallowed by the fish for three days to save the crew from the storm. And we also see that God's forgiveness is freely given to those who don't deserve it.
