Earth, Teach Me The lessons of spring offer the promise of life's renewal. A community of faith finds time, too, to listen to the earth's call and to renew itself. Our congregation considers the lessons of the earth and launches "Blooming and Belonging," its own call for membership renewal, a recommitment to our way of being and becoming.

Complimentary Blooming and Belonging Membership Renewal Celebration and Luncheon will immediately follow Service in the Social Hall. The Green Sanctuary Team invites all to wear gardening clothes to join them on the Patio after lunch to help plant dozens of native plants in the woods.

A Plea for Peace

THE ORCHESTRA AT SHELTER ROCK
and UUCSR CHOIR

Stephen Michael Smith, Music Director/Conductor

Considering a world where peace may seem impossible, Vaughan Williams wrote this music in 1936—after one world war and before the next—as an explicit plea against war. It is, sadly, still relevant today as it lifts up the human longing for peace. Lyrics include poems by 19th-century Unitarian, Walt Whitman.

TOUCHSTONES

Rev. David Carl Olson

Delight

I was recently reminded that an early proponent of Unitarianism in our country thought that we should practice "charity, forbearance, and a delight in the virtues of different sects."

When William Ellery Channing wrote these words in 1819, he was arguing that, while the Unitarian faith has a set of beliefs that set it apart from traditional Christianity, that it was not those beliefs that made our tradition distinctive. What made us distinctive was our appreciation of the diversity of faith. And a marker of our maturity in practicing our faith was an attitude of curiosity that would lead to delight in what other religions were discovering was true.

For Channing, the censure and condemnation of others for their incorrect beliefs reflected a kind of backwardness. He argued against a sense of superiority within our tradition, and warned that we should at least recognize danger in any elation with the belief of our own correctness. Charity was required, and forbearance, and the discovery of virtue. And real delight that others were finding their own way to truth.

It isn't easy to build a multifaith, multicultural congregation. We try to find ways to share in worship that moves the heart, soothes the soul, challenges the intellect, encourages the development of virtue (including generosity, compassion, humility, humor, etc., etc., etc.).

We share a song. We offer a prayer. We hear a poem. We do a little chair yoga. We make an offering. We listen to music. We breathe into silence.

UUCSR's Worship Services are onsite and livestreamed on uucsr.org/worship, Facebook, and YouTube; available thereafter on the same platforms and as podcasts (www.uucsr.org/podcast). Onsite, mask wearing is encouraged. Masks are required when singing.

And, sometimes...

We share a message that we think is a little too political—or not political enough. We consider a joke that is too edgy and a meditation that is too reverential. We get confused by someone's slang or baffled by someone's academic jargon. We are sometimes bothered by a religious symbol that we are not sure has a place in our midst.

It all happens in one shared hour.

We are one people with many diverse experiences. We share one hour, and are given a chance—with charity and forbearance—to delight in the virtues of others.

And thus to make old Mr. Channing—and even ourselves—proud.

Yours in a faith that frees,
Rev. David Carl Olson

CONGREGATIONAL AFFAIRS

Jana North, President of the Congregation

A Message From the President

A few weeks ago, I was very lucky to attend the Sunday Youth Service at UUCSR. The music was great and the readings were heartfelt, personal, and incredibly articulate. A quote by Pablo Picasso was one of the readings that really stuck with me, and epitomizes how I look at our work at UUCSR.

The meaning of life is to find your gift.
The purpose of life is to give it away.

Every day that I'm involved at UUCSR, I am impressed with the amount of talent and passion that members bring to our congregational life. It amazes me to see the remarkable gifts that are generously given to Shelter Rock from all our boards, committees, task forces, and ad hoc groups. It is wonderful that individuals are able to find a valued and creative place in the congregation that feeds their spirits and enhances all our lives.

We all keep coming back to this second home where we have found our gift for displaying art and making music, for balancing budgets and managing investments, for guiding young people and protecting our landscape, for cooking meals and caring for the fragile among us, for taking a stand and providing a safe space for all. We know that it is only when we're working together that our spirit and our faith is truly fulfilled.

As this year begins to wind down, I hope you all will take a few minutes to feel proud of what we have started, worked on, and accomplished since September. I also hope that you will continue to seek out those activities and events at UUCSR that speak to your passion and that highlight your gifts.

Sunday, April 16, 2023 is the annual Blooming & Belonging Member Renewal Celebration Luncheon at Shelter Rock. You will be asked to renew your membership for the new year that begins on July 1 for an amount that reflects what UUCSR truly means to you. Your pledge will help to support the gifts you have already generously given to the congregation in the work of the programs and projects that you are passionate about.

A free, celebratory lunch and a flowering plant will be a small gift back to you for renewing your membership at Shelter Rock and continuing this journey together. Thank you for all that you do.

See the 1976 Ford F-100 truck named Baby Blue outside the Main Entrance (#spotbabyblue).
You won't want to miss this annual celebration!

Blooming & Belonging Membership Renewal Celebration and Luncheon

Membership Kick-Off | Sunday, April 16, 2023 | 12:00–1:00 PM

Join onsite for a kick-off celebration and luncheon to renew your membership for the 2023–2024 Congregational Year that begins July 1, 2023. Complimentary lunch for all and a flower give-away to those who turn in their Membership Renewal Card!

Shelter Rock's April 16 Earth Day Worship Service leads directly to the Blooming & Belonging Membership Renewal Celebration and Luncheon. Pick up a renewal packet, fill out the renewal card, stick the Blooming & Belonging yellow ribbon onto your nametag, and pick up a blossoming plant from the little blue truck parked in front of the Main Entrance.

The Sunday Café luncheon is special—bounteous and varied—just like the many varieties of local and native plants on the little blue truck. And it's free! Volunteers at the Blooming & Belonging renewal tables can assist with the renewal process—for anyone with a smartphone, it's really simple—or bypass the tech and fill out a card.

Membership at Shelter Rock must be renewed in advance of every congregational year, which always begins July 1. Many members are accustomed to waiting until the fall, or even December to renew. This year, we would be grateful to have everyone renew early. The April 16 Blooming & Belonging Celebration is to help all our current members get ahead of the beginning of the next Congregational Year.

So—reset your membership renewal clock to renew in April, well before the new Congregational Year begins. And, although a financial commitment is expected, anyone experiencing financial hardship may request a waiver from the ministry team.

For those with the inclination, wear your gardening clothes and join the Green Sanctuary team at 1:00 PM to plant additional blooms around the property. Holes are pre-dug, so this is a great activity for families with young children.

As we progress forward through the current springtime Inquirers series, I wanted to remind everyone that although this series of introductory conversations about Unitarian Universalism, and especially our congregation here at Shelter Rock, was specifically designed for visitors and newcomers, current members of our congregation are also welcome and, in fact, encouraged to join in.

This series offers the opportunity to more personally interact with our ministers and other important staff members representing lifespan religious education, worship, pastoral care, social justice, and music.

It also gives our current members a chance to meet and get to know newcomers who may eventually become members. These folks have come in search for what may be a new spiritual journey in their lives. We are very appreciative that they have taken their time and energy to participate in this program.

Sunday, April 23, 2023, 12:00–1:30 PM will be the next Inquirers session in the Veatch Ballroom. This is an important session especially for newcomers who are considering joining our congregation. The first half of the session will be led by Social Justice Coordinator Claire Deroche who works toward the Shelter Rock vision to build a more just and joyful world. Her experiences from childhood on led her to realize that we must work for the liberation of all peoples, especially those that society leaves behind.

The second half of the April 23 session will be run by a minister who will discuss what it truly means to be a member. People choose to become members for a whole variety of reasons. For some, the sense of community and friendship with like-minded people are most important. Others are more interested in spiritual growth. Still others come to participate in the outstanding music and arts program. Finally, others are eager to work on projects related to social and racial justice or work towards making a greener environment.

Whatever your interests may be, we aspire to create a loving religious community, grow spiritually, and build a more just and joyful world.

Hearing Notice: Future Life Prize Initiative Sunday, April 23, 2023 | 1:00 PM | Social Hall

Come learn about a proposed Future Life Prize following Sunday Café after Shelter Rock's Annual Music Sunday Worship Service.

Several congregants concerned about the future lives of our children (and grandchildren) will explain how their proposal for a prize awarded by the UUA using UUCSR funds could support positive changes toward the Shelter Rock vision for a more just and joyful world.

They propose an annual $1,000,000 prize to the person, persons, or organization that helps halt or reduce the greatest threats to future human life, such as:

- Climate Warming
- Pandemics
- Nuclear War
- Artificial Intelligence

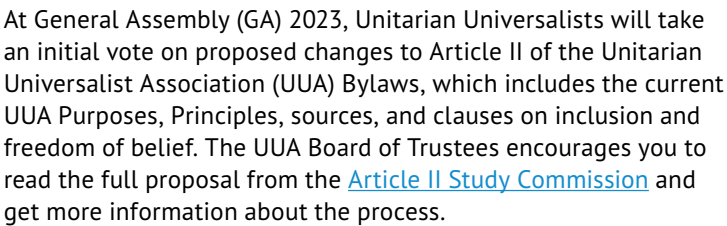

Nothing is fixed about the design of this prize. It is open to all suggestions and questions, including:

- What are the greatest threats to our future?
- What would the mission of the Future Life Prize (FLP) be?
- What effect might it have on future threats to humanity?
- What effects might it have on UUCSR?
- What effect might it have on Unitarian Universalism?
- Who has the expertise to advise on the winners?
- Who would decide on the winner(s)?
- Who would the FLP be awarded to?
- Who would pay for publicity and support?

Please contact Wolstan Brown with questions, comments, or concerns: wwbrown@optonline.net

Barry Nobel, Chair

All qualifying suggestions will be posted for public chat discussion at discuss.uua.org, starting after April 22. Suggestions must be received by April 30 in order to be posted. Additionally, the UUA Board of Trustees will host public discussion workshops on May 11, 18, and 21, 2023, to review suggestions and ideas. These rounds of public discussion will inform the way amendments are prioritized for discussion and voting at General Assembly.

NOTE: Submitting suggestions and ideas through this form is for the purpose of public discussion, and does NOT submit an amendment which could be voted on at General Assembly. Amendments eligible for voting must be separately submitted by delegates through the online delegate platform, which will be available when the GA final agenda is published. Delegate amendments which are based on suggestions or ideas which had been previously discussed through this process are more likely to be prioritized for discussion and voting at General Assembly.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Klaus Masuch, Chair

The Nominating Committee is pleased to present its nominees for the June 2023 election cycle to the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock. These candidates share a willingness to give their time and talents to serving their fellow congregants. They were chosen because of their demonstrated leadership and sustained commitment to our UU Principles.

The Nominating Committee spoke with members of the Board of Trustees, and with our Ministers, in order to gain a better understanding of the preferred skill sets and interpersonal qualities expected of candidates. We discussed all candidates received from electronic and mail-in submissions and those generated by members of the Nominating Committee itself.

After carefully reviewing the qualifications of each of the candidates and considering the current needs of the Board of Trustees, as well as next year's Nominating Committee, we propose to the Congregation the slate of candidates (see below) and recommend that these nominees be elected at the Annual Meeting on Sunday, June 4, 2023.

If members of the Congregation wish to propose an additional person (who has been a member of UUCSR for three consecutive years at the time the term of office commences) for nomination for any of the positions listed below, they will need to adhere to the process according to Bylaw Article VI Nominations:

Section 6.4 Additional Nominations

Additional nominations for all elective positions, including those for the Nominating Committee itself, may be made by written petition of at least thirty (30) members and with the consent of the nominee(s). Such petition(s), along with the nominees' qualifications, must be filed with the Secretary not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which elections will take place. Such additional nominations and qualifications shall be included in the notice of the meeting at which elections will take place.

Should a vacancy occur in the proposed slate within 30 days of the Annual Meeting, the submission of nominee(s) for this position by petition will be allowed when submitted.

No nominations shall be valid except those carried out by the above procedures.
