What stood out to you from this week's sermon?

Read Genesis chapters 1&2 and Mark 4:26-29

Most biblical scholars think that Genesis 1 and 2 are different accounts of creation written for different groups of people. What do you think?

What do you notice that is different about these two stories? What is similar? Why might this be important?

Discuss the following relationships from Genesis 2: God and the physical world. God and humanity. Humans with each other. Humans with the physical world.

How does the passage from Mark 4 relate to Genesis 2?

How do these scriptures encourage or challenge you in your discipleship journey with Jesus?

What is Jesus inviting you to be and do this week? What steps will you take?

Pray

Take time to pray for students returning to school and for all those who are a part of our educational system. Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.
