What stood out to you from this week's sermon?

Read Deuteronomy 5:1-2; 6:1-9 & Romans 7:14-25

As you read these commandments, what are some specific benefits you have experienced in following them? What are some specific consequences you've experienced when violating them?

What are some of the reasons God shares for giving these commandments? Why does this matter?

How does Romans 7 reveal God's ultimate purpose in the Law? What does this mean to you?

How does your faith in Jesus reveal God's love and promises in each of his commandments? How would you translate each one?

What is Jesus inviting you to be, believe, and do this week? What steps will you take?

PRAY

Heavenly Father, your commandments are always meant for our good and for the good of our neighbors. But we are sinners and even our best efforts to fulfill your law end in failure. Help us to hear in your Word the Law that condemns us and the Gospel that saves us. Teach us to trust your promises and live in love toward you and our neighbors by the power of the Holy Spirit. We ask this in Jesus name. Amen.
