

GROWTH GROUP DISCUSSION

Connect

What 'routines' have you created in your daily life? Were they formed intentionally or unintentionally? In which ways are they helpful, or unhelpful?

Learn & Apply

Our Advent Theme this year is : Make Room. Today we are called to Make Room in our Routines. What do you think it would practically look like to Make Room for Jesus in your Routine? What might that mean to you?

Read Luke 2: 8-12, and 15

* What brought the Shepherds out of their routine? What made them leave their sheep to seek out Jesus?

- What does it take for us to leave our 'life as usual' to seek Jesus?

Read Luke 2: 16-20

- What do the Shepherds do when they confirmed this good news was true?
- What might have been surprising about this, in both the message and the messengers?

Jesus's birth was proclaimed to Shepherds taking care of the sheep who would be sent to the temple as sacrificial lambs.

Read Micah 5: verse 2, and 4

- What does this tell us about Jesus?

Read Isaiah 53 verses 6-7 and 12

- What does this tell us about why Jesus came?

Read Matthew 9: 36-38

* What does our Good Shepherd ask of us?

Pray Lord Jesus, help me to see what you see, as I walk through my 'life as usual'. Help me make room in my routines, for what you want to do through me, for the sake of those who need to know your love. Amen.

GROWTH GROUP DISCUSSION

Connect

What 'routines' have you created in your daily life? Were they formed intentionally or unintentionally? In which ways are they helpful, or unhelpful?

Learn & Apply

Our Advent Theme this year is : Make Room. Today we are called to Make Room in our Routines. What do you think it would practically look like to Make Room for Jesus in your Routine? What might that mean to you?

Read Luke 2: 8-12, and 15

* What brought the Shepherds out of their routine? What made them leave their sheep to seek out Jesus?

- What does it take for us to leave our 'life as usual' to seek Jesus?

Read Luke 2: 16-20

- What do the Shepherds do when they confirmed this good news was true?
- What might have been surprising about this, in both the message and the messengers?

Jesus's birth was proclaimed to Shepherds taking care of the sheep who would be sent to the temple as sacrificial lambs.

Read Micah 5: verse 2, and 4

- What does this tell us about Jesus?

Read Isaiah 53 verses 6-7 and 12

- What does this tell us about why Jesus came?

Read Matthew 9: 36-38

* What does our Good Shepherd ask of us?

Pray Lord Jesus, help me to see what you see, as I walk through my 'life as usual'. Help me make room in my routines, for what you want to do through me, for the sake of those who need to know your love. Amen.