Have you ever broken something? What was it? How did it feel?
Were you able to fix it yourself?

What stuck out to you from today's sermon? Why?

Read:

- Genesis 4:3-13
- Romans 5:6-8

How do you see the brokenness of sin show itself in the story of Cain and Abel?

Do you relate with God telling Cain to “master your sin” and Cain being unable to do so? How?

Do you have any stories you would like to share of how sin caused brokenness in your life?

What excites you most about Jesus's sacrifice to set you free and make you whole again, even amidst your sin?

PRAY

Holy Savior, thank you for making us whole again and mending our brokenness, even though we are still sinners. Thank you for your sacrifice that makes us right with you, even though we could never deserve it. Holy Spirit, help us master our sin, not just by doing better and trying harder, but relying more on you to lead us and guide us with every aspect of our lives. We pray all of these things in the powerful name of Jesus. Amen.
