

CONNECT

After a big event, what does your “next day” usually feel like?

LEARN & APPLY

Read John 21:1-17

- What stands out to you in this passage?
- Why do you think Peter went back to fishing after the resurrection of Jesus?
- The disciples don’t recognize Jesus at first. Why do you think this is the case? What do you think changed in order for them to see Jesus?
- What are some “ordinary” parts of your day/week where you feel the need to become more aware of Jesus’ presence?
- Read Matthew 4:18-22. How does this passage relate to John’s post-resurrection account? Why is this important in understanding vocation?
- What does Jesus’ interaction with Peter reveal about grace and failure? How have you experienced this in your life?
- What are some ways in which Jesus might be inviting you to “feed his sheep” in your everyday life? How will you respond to his call?

PRAY

Take time to pray over the “callings” you have in your lives. End with the Lord’s Prayer.

CONNECT

After a big event, what does your “next day” usually feel like?

LEARN & APPLY

Read John 21:1-17

- What stands out to you in this passage?
- Why do you think Peter went back to fishing after the resurrection of Jesus?
- The disciples don’t recognize Jesus at first. Why do you think this is the case? What do you think changed in order for them to see Jesus?
- What are some “ordinary” parts of your day/week where you feel the need to become more aware of Jesus’ presence?
- Read Matthew 4:18-22. How does this passage relate to John’s post-resurrection account? Why is this important in understanding vocation?
- What does Jesus’ interaction with Peter reveal about grace and failure? How have you experienced this in your life?
- What are some ways in which Jesus might be inviting you to “feed his sheep” in your everyday life? How will you respond to his call?

PRAY

Take time to pray over the “callings” you have in your lives. End with the Lord’s Prayer.

