Summer in the Psalms

Lesson Four • Psalm 11

When Foundations Crumble

A Desperate Situation

When the wicked attack, foundations crumble and everything falls apart, what can the RIGHTEOUS do?

"If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" Psalm 11:3

A Decisive Response (Main Point of Psalm 11)

The righteous TRUST in the Lord, who will protect perfectly and judge righteously.

When Foundations Crumble

1. Trust in the Lord Who Is Our Safe REFUGE in Times of Trouble!

David's Faith

David chooses to take SHELTER in God for protection and safety against the wicked (v. 1).

Counsel of Despair

- Faith rejects the counsel to FLEE (v.1).

- Faith rejects the counsel to FEAR (v. 2).

- Faith rejects the counsel to FRET (v. 3).

2. Trust in the Lord Who Is Our Sovereign KING Over All Things!

David's Foundation

The foundation that supports God's people is the LORD who is the Sovereign King over all things (v. 3-4).

Confidence in God

- God RULES over all and SEES all from His throne in heaven (v. 4).

- God TESTS the righteous and JUDGES the wicked (v. 5-6).

- God PROMISES the righteous will see His face (v. 7).

Live It Out Lesson from Psalm 11

As the world goes from bad to worse, don't GIVE in to the counsel of despair; instead, TRUST in the Lord who is a firm foundation for His people.
