AN INTERRUPTED MOMENT (PART 2) A CALLING

Monte Ingersoll

Luke 5:27-39

²⁷ "Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector's booth. 'Follow me and be my disciple,' Jesus said to him.

²⁸ So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

²⁹ Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi's fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them.

³⁰ But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus' disciples, 'Why do you eat and drink with such scum?' ³¹ Jesus answered them, 'Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do.

³² I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.'

³³ One day some people said to Jesus, 'John the Baptist's disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?' ³⁴ Jesus responded, 'Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. ³⁵ But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.'

³⁸ New wine must be stored in new wineskins. ³⁹ But no one who drinks the old wine seems to want the new wine. "The old is just fine," they say."

1. Identify where you are in the story.
2. What old wineskin thinking are you living in? Identify what some of those old wineskins are.
3. What might it look like for you to throw a party for Jesus?
If you did, whom would you invite? Like Levi, who would be on your list?
