The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. One hundred percent of gifts given to AAEO go to the field to support more than 2,900 missionary families serving across the United States and Canada. Annie Armstrong was a missions hero in Southern Baptist history. She spent her life educating churches about missions, and raising support for the missionaries on the field. Through her writing skills, she raised support for missionaries and funding for WMU and provided missions education materials. "In a ten-year summary of her work, Annie Armstrong reported having written 77,447 letters and manuscripts. . . . On average she mailed more than 8,000 letters a year and roughly 674 letters per month." This was in the late 1800's, before typewriters, copiers, or email.

Our church goal is $13,000 and is being sent to New England, Appalachia, and Alabama.
