

Shadrach, Meshach and Abendego
Daniel 3

How can we glorify God?
We can glorify God by loving
Him and obeying Him.

So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.
1 Corinthians 10:31

Story Point:

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego obeyed God
by refusing to worship the gold statue.

SHEPHERD GUIDE

Daniel 3 contains one of the most powerful declarations in the Bible—a declaration so bold that it has inspired believers to stand firm in their faith, regardless of hardships or persecution. But before we get to that declaration, we must understand the situation in which it was given.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego faced a seemingly impossible situation. King Nebuchadnezzar had set up a massive golden statue and invited everyone to join him in commemorating the event by bowing down and worshiping the idol. When the call went out to bow down, everyone obeyed the king's command except for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. King Nebuchadnezzar was furious. He summoned the men and gave them a second chance to bow to the statue while reminding them that if they refused to bow, he would have them thrown into a fiery furnace where they would surely die.

Given the ultimatum, the three men declared, "If the God we serve exists, then he can rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and he can rescue us from the power of you, the king. But even if he does not rescue us, we want you as king to know that we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up" (Daniel 3:16-18). The boldest part of that statement comes in the second sentence, when they say, "even if He does not." They stood before this powerful king and declared that they would not bow regardless of what happened to them.

Ultimately, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were thrown into the fiery furnace where a mysterious fourth man walked with them. God rescued them from death, and His name was praised among the people. As we read the story of these three men, we see them refuse the temptation to bow down to anyone or anything other than the one true God. Encourage kids to be ready to stand firm in their faith like these three men and to remember that Jesus has promised to be with those who trust in Him.

REMINDER: Our VIP meeting is from 8:30-8:40 in C1.
Your supply bin will be in your classroom.

MAIN TAKEAWAYS: We want our kids to:

- *KNOW that God alone is worthy of our worship.
- *TRUST in God and that He is with them.
- *STAND firm in their faith.

As children arrive - Welcome them by name and invite them to play with you and the other children. Use this time to get to know your kids - ask them about their week, about their likes and dislikes and about their school, family and friends.

Ways to connect - Play a game from the closet, color or draw together, build with legos/blocks, etc.

When most kids have arrived for first service (by 9:05ish), ask them to clean up the toys and find a seat at one of the tables to begin the class.

OPENING QUESTIONS:

WELCOME

What's Different?

activity page,
pencils,
markers

Do you prefer hot weather or cold weather?
Can you recall a time you were really hot?
How did you escape the heat?

Invite kids to complete the "What's Different?" activity page.

Like you found an object in each row that was different, we'll see how three men chose to be different by not bowing down to worship an idol.

STARTER Protected

- 2 oranges
- Clear pitcher
- Water

Invite the kids to gather around a table while you set out a pitcher of water. Hold up a peeled orange and an unpeeled orange.

Allow kids to examine the difference between the two. Place the peeled orange in the water and encourage kids to examine what happens. Then invite kids to consider how the peeled orange sank.

Remove the peeled orange and place the other orange in the water. As the orange floats, discuss how the peel gives the orange buoyancy (allows it to float).

Prompt kids to think about how God "covered" Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, protecting them from the fiery flames.

SAY: Today we are going to see how Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego bravely obeyed God's commands, even if it meant they would die. But God protected them and revealed that He is the God who saves! God doesn't promise that Christians will be protected from every hardship, but He does promise to protect them from the punishment sin deserves. When we place our faith in Jesus, we are covered in Jesus' righteousness, and God saves us from sin and death.

Taught by the Bible Teacher:

Quick Review of where we are in the Big Story of the Bible and Big Picture Question:

How can we glorify God? We can glorify God by loving Him and obeying Him.

Open your Bible to Daniel 3.

STORYTELLING OPTIONS / TIPS:

Use dramatic voice: Help kids distinguish between King Nebuchadnezzar and Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego by altering the tone in your voice as you read spoken words in the story.

Display pictures: Find and display pictures of some famous statues. Explain that statues often are designed to look like certain people or animals. Remind kids that worshipping anything other than God is disobedience because only He is worthy of worship.

When King Nebuchadnezzar defeated God's people, he brought back young men from Judah to be his servants. Daniel, Shadrach (SHAD rak), Meshach (MEE shak), and Abednego (uh BED-nih goh) were some of the young men who were captured and brought to Babylon.

One day, King Nebuchadnezzar set up a large gold statue and invited everyone to a special dedication ceremony. A messenger of the king proclaimed, "People of every nation and language, you are commanded: whenever you hear music, you are to fall facedown and worship this gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. Whoever does not fall down and worship the statue will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire."

When the music played, everyone fell down and worshiped. Everyone, that is, except for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They knew they were commanded by God to worship Him alone.

Some of the people of Babylon knew that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego did not worship the golden statue. They told King Nebuchadnezzar, and he became very angry. He gave orders to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to him.

When Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came before the king, the king said, "If you do not obey my command when the music plays, I will immediately throw you into a furnace of blazing fire. What god can rescue you from that?" Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, "King Nebuchadnezzar, the God we serve can rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire and from your power. But even if he does not rescue us, we want you to know that we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up."

Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage. He made the furnace seven times hotter than usual and had Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego tied up and thrown in the furnace. The flames were so hot, the men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego up to the furnace died from the heat.

Suddenly, King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up, surprised. “Didn’t we throw three bound men into the fire? Then why do I see four men, not tied up, walking around in the fire unharmed? The fourth man looks like a son of the gods!”

He called Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego servants of the Most High God and told them to come out. Not a hair of their heads was burned, and there was no smell of fire on them.

Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, “Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel and rescued his servants. I issue a new decree: anyone who says anything bad about their God will be punished, for there is no other god who can save like theirs.”

CHRIST CONNECTION

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to bow down to anything but God. When we trust in Jesus and God brings us from death to life, we turn away from worshiping anything else. Jesus is Savior and Lord over our lives.

REVIEW AND DISCUSS

Allow time to have the children think and process – however this works best for your class. We want our kids to feel known and heard!

Blank paper, Bible
Story coloring page, colored
pencils/crayons

In small groups (or as a large group), use the coloring page (on the other side of the worksheet) and have children color while you talk through these questions.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had been captured and brought to Babylon to serve King Nebuchadnezzar. The king ordered all the people to bow down and worship the golden statue. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew worshiping anything other than God was wrong.

What did the three men say when King Nebuchadnezzar threatened to throw them into the fire? [Allow responses.] Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego placed their faith in God rather than in King Nebuchadnezzar. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego told the king that their God could protect them, but even if He chose not to, they would not bow down. Like Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, we are called to place our trust in God, regardless of our circumstances or feelings. God is worthy of our full love and obedience no matter what.

After Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were thrown in the furnace, Nebuchadnezzar saw a fourth man in the fire. How did King Nebuchadnezzar describe the fourth man? [Allow responses.] The king saw someone who looked like a son of the gods walking in the fire with the three men! God allowed them to be throw into the fire, but He was protecting them. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to worship the gold statue, and God rescued them. Through faith in Jesus, we can trust that God will be with us, and we will be saved from sin and eternal death.

Reflection and Prayer

Have children use a blank sheet of paper. Ask the kids to write about or draw a picture to answer the following questions. Or, just talk about it together.

• What does this story teach me about God?

That God is greater than any earthly authority. Nothing and no one on earth deserves the worship that should be reserved for God alone. God honors the obedience of His children. He is with His people during times of hardship.

• What does this story teach me about myself?

That there are many things that try to take my heart and mind away from God. That idols come in many different forms, not just statues - it's anything that I view as more important than God.

That I need God's help to turn away from these worthless things and to worship Him alone!

Prayer: God, we are so thankful for this time we have together to learn from the Bible. You have blessed us in so many ways. We give You thanks for the good things You have given us, and we want to focus our hearts and minds on You. We dedicate ourselves to You, and we worship You alone. You are an amazing God, and we love You! Amen.

Questions from Kids Video

USB on TV

Show the "Unit 16, Session 2" questions from kids video. Prompt kids to discuss:

- Where do we go if we do not believe in God when we die?
- Have you trusted in Jesus? Will you be with God in heaven?

ENGAGE HEARTS

Key Passage Activity:

Pass the Fireball

- Key Passage Poster
- Tissue Paper "fireball"

Show the key passage poster. Lead kids in reading aloud 1 Corinthians 10:31 together.

SAY: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego glorified God through their obedience to worship only Him. Our key passage reminds us that we are also called to glorify God in all that we do.

Direct kids to stand in a circle. Challenge kids to quickly pass the ball (tissue paper fireball) around the circle while reciting the key passage. Tell kids that while the ball is passed around, you will set a timer on your phone for a random amount of time (example - 20 sec.). Lead kids to pass the ball and continue to repeat the key passage until the timer goes off. Explain that when it does, the kid holding the ball is out and they can sit down. Repeat as time allows.

Pray together:

God, thank You for showing Your great power to save through the lives of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. As we seek to worship You alone, give us the courage to obey Your Word in all circumstances. Amen.

Fiery Furnace

- Flames cut-out
- Fiery Furnace worksheet
- Markers
- Colored Pencils
- Scissors
- Glue sticks

Provide each kid with a “Fiery Furnace” worksheet and flames cut-out and markers.

Invite kids to color the images. Then distribute scissors and glue to kids.

Direct kids to cut out the flames in half and glue them to the appropriate spot on the picture of the men in the furnace.

Once complete, kids will be able to “open” the flames to reveal the men in the furnace.

Invite kids to take home their craft and use it to help share how Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to worship the gold statue, and God rescued them.

SAY: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego trusted God no matter what. They knew God was powerful enough to save them, but even if He didn’t, they would never bow down to Nebuchadnezzar’s statue. We can trust God no matter what circumstance we face. God is worthy of our obedience, and through our obedience, we glorify Him.

Love with Your Whole Self

- Bible
- Craft paper with person outline
- Beanbag

Review the big picture question and answer. Read Mark 12:30 and remind kids that loving God with our whole self is Jesus’ greatest commandment.

Draw a basic person shape on a large piece of paper and tape it to the floor. Draw hearts on the head, hands, chest, and feet (This will be done for you!)

Invite one volunteer at a time to line up a few feet away from the person figure; hand them a beanbag.

Invite them to toss the beanbag at one of the hearts.

- If the beanbag lands on the head, ask the class to name some ways they can love and obey God with their mind (such as Bible study).
- If the beanbag lands near the chest, have them name ways to love God with their heart (such as worship).
- If it lands near a hand or a foot, have them name ways to obey God with their strength (such as serving).

Ask for different volunteers to toss the beanbag and brainstorm ways to love and obey God - write them on the whiteboard.

Talk about how Shadrach, Meshach and Abendego showed their love for God through their actions, and that we can show our love for God through our actions as well. Pray together; thanking God and asking for His help in loving and following Him.
