SERMON RECAP

Joseph had faith that God would use the evil done to him for good. We can rest in that same truth today while we wait for Jesus' return and eternal victory over sin!

THE LEAD IN

- Thinking back over our series in Genesis, what new truth that you learned or practical takeaway has stayed with you the most? Why?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Genesis 50:15-21. What is going through the mind of Joseph's brothers? Why are they suddenly scared? What does Joseph's answer tell you about him?
- Compare Acts 2:22-24 and 36-41 with the passage in Genesis 50. What similarities do you see between God's actions with Joseph and with Jesus? How is Joseph's story a foreshadowing of the Messiah?

GOING DEEPER

- Reflecting on your own walk with the Lord, have you ever seen evil done to you, by you, or around you still be used by the God for good? How did it affect your faith?
- Knowing that God's victorious story is your story, how do you practically set your mind and heart on things above (Colossians 3:1-17)? Would you say you live a life marked by gratitude? Do you find encouragement in pursuing Christ in community?

PRAYER

- Give thanks to God for His faithfulness and goodness as He sovereignly works out His plan of salvation for His people!
