GOD'S MISSION, OUR COMMISSION, HIS MIGHT | OCTOBER 27, 2024

SERMON RECAP

God is on mission to make His name known to us. He has commissioned us to be His messengers and has graciously gifted us with His might to carry out that commission.

THE LEAD IN

- Think back to your last day off. How did you spend your day? Why did you spend time on the things that you did?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Colossians 1:24 through 2:5. Where in this passage do you see God's mission, our commission, and His might? What are each of those things?
- Keeping those three things in mind (God's mission, our commission, His might), how would you succinctly summarize in two sentences what Paul is writing to the Colossian church in this passage?

GOING DEEPER

- Where has the Lord specifically placed you in life where you have influence? Your family? Your job? Your neighborhood? Are you prepared and willing to obediently be commissioned by God to make Him known in those areas? What holds you back?
- Continuing to reflect on those places of influence that God has placed you in, how are you tempted to live in your own strength? What would it look like to rely fully on God's might instead?

PRAYER

- Pray for each other as co-commissioned by Christ to make His name known where God has placed you. Ask Him to help you humbly rely on His might instead of your own strength.
