SERMON RECAP

Our hearts drive our desire and affections. Our minds can turn our hearts towards new passions. Are our hearts and minds desiring Christ and aligned towards Him?

THE LEAD IN

- What do you think your family and friends would say if you asked them what drives you the most or what your strongest desires are?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Colossians 3:1-4. Depending on your translation, this passage begins with “Since, then” or “If then.” Look back in chapter 2—what must we keep in mind as we begin to talk about focusing our minds and hearts on Christ and the cross?
- What is the end goal? Why does Paul exhort the church in Colossae to set their minds and hearts on things above?

GOING DEEPER

- When it comes to the condition of your heart, what is driving you? Is it Christ? If not, what do you need to confess as idolatry?
- Your mind can change the direction of your heart. What are you feeding your mind? Is it things of Christ? If not, what do you need to flee from?
- “Set your heart/mind on things above” sounds nice but can be abstract if we don’t stop to reflect on how and what. Very practically, how might you set your heart and your mind on things above? What are those things?

PRAYER

- Ask the Lord for the desire and strength to keep your heart and your mind focused on Him above all else.
