WE PROCLAIM WHO WE KNOW | OCTOBER 12, 2025

SERMON RECAP

The message we proclaim is rooted in relationship with Jesus, our Savior who we abide in deep fellowship with. Our fellowship with Him leads to fellowship with one another so they experience His joy as well.

THE LEAD IN

- Who in your life do you know so well that you can pick their voice out of a crowd, you know their habits, and you can tell they're approaching just by their walk? Does that closeness of relationship affect how you talk about them to other people?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read 1 John 1:1-4. What stands out to you about how John describes Jesus in this passage? How does his firsthand experience with Jesus give credibility to what he is writing?
- Consider Genesis 1:26-27, 2:7; Matthew 28:19-20; and John 17:3 alongside our passage in 1 John. How do these passages inform how we can personally experience Him and tell us what God's desire is for relationship with us?

GOING DEEPER

- How is fellowship with Jesus more than just believing facts about Him? What does it look like to participate with Him in daily life? Within your Oikos?
- How have you personally experienced Jesus in a way that has developed deep affection, not just knowledge? Has that intimacy with Him given you opportunity to proclaim Him to others?

PRAYER

- As you end in prayer, thank God for the fullness of joy that come from knowing and proclaiming Him.
