SERMON RECAP

We live in a world filled with voices – some true, many false. We must remain grounded in Christ, relying on the Holy Spirit for discernment, so we aren't led astray when tests come.

THE LEAD IN

- If your teenage self would have listened to only one voice for advice, who would they have chosen? How would that have gone?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read 1 John 2:18-27. Who are the antichrists that John is writing about and what is it that the antichrists are trying to do to the church?
- What are the ways that John instructs the church to combat the lies and division that the antichrists seek to sow within the church?

GOING DEEPER

- Tony shared three anchors to root ourselves in so we can remain in fellowship with the Father: the Word, the Son, and the Hope of eternal life. How do you anchor yourself in these three things? What spiritual disciplines do you practice that orient your mind and heart towards them?
- 1 Corinthians 2:12-16 exhorts us to remain in the teaching of the Holy Spirit. Are there voices in your life (other people, online teachers, influencers, etc.) that you need to turn down so you can lean on the Holy Spirit?

PRAYER

- Pray together for the strength to remain in Christ, to grow in discernment through the Spirit, and to grow in confidence in your hope for eternity.
