SPECIAL OFFERING ON SUNDAY, MAY 28

On Pentecost Sunday, May 28, we will join other churches in the Florida conference in giving to two important ministries selected by our Bishop Tom Berlin. The offering will be divided equally between:

Rev. Geraldine Williams McClellan Endowment Scholarship at Gammon Theological Seminary. This endowment honors the life and legacy of the first woman of color ordained in The Florida Conference in 1982. The offering will help provide scholarships to support students attending Gammon Theological Seminary and help prepare them for ministry.

The Warren Willis Camp and Conference Center. Warren Willis has been providing a safe place for children and youth to grow deeper in their faith for 75 years. This year's offering will help the camp upgrade their programs and provide scholarships to students who may not be able to attend on their own resources.

If you would like to contribute to this special offering, please mark your donation: Special Conference Offering.

They will also serve at camp on Wednesdays, and worship on Sundays. Check our website for more info about our upcoming summer activities.

Our Young Adults had a great time at Threshers dollar night! If you'd like updates about upcoming studies and events for 18-30 year olds contact Alison Van Duyne: alison.v@stpaulumc.org

Thanks to all the volunteers who've made Messy Church possible! We'll be back this fall with more fun ways to worship!
