THANKSGIVING FOR PINELLAS

This Thanksgiving we're giving 175 local families something to celebrate with a full Thanksgiving dinner. You can help by donating gravy, stuffing mix, instant mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, and canned corn or green beans for Open Arms. You can also make a donation marked Open Arms for the purchase of turkeys.

PASTOR APPRECIATION

October is Pastor Appreciation Month! Why not share an encouraging word with our pastors in person, over the phone or by email? Another great way to support our pastors is to get involved here at St. Paul in ministries, classes, service, and more. And don't forget to keep our pastors in your prayers all year!

JUMPSTART

Some of our St. Paul ministries and study groups have been helping provide meals for Jumpstart, our after school program, this school year. Last week it was our Friendship class that meets at 10:15 on Sundays. This week it was Martha's Loving Hearts, our food ministry. Thank you! A huge thanks to all our Jumpstart volunteers as well. We're so grateful to see the people of St. Paul coming together and getting involved in supporting God's work in all kinds of ways!

SUNDAY PARKING

The office parking lot is available on Sundays at 9 AM for those who have mobility issues.

CHARGE CONFERENCE

Church members are welcome to attend this year's Charge Conference next Sunday, Oct. 22 to receive reports on church leadership and other issues. The Charge Conference will be held at Anona UMC - 13233 Indian Rocks Road in Largo. The charge conference will begin at 4 PM.

Last Sunday's Messy Church was so much fun! We had 85 people who came to learn about God and enjoy some glow in the dark games! Thanks to our Messy Church volunteers for making it possible! The next Messy Church is Nov. 12 at 5. Plan to join us!
