CONGRATULATIONS, BROOKE WARD!

During last month's Church Conference we voted unanimously to recommend St. Paul member, Brooke

Ward, as a candidate for ordained ministry. Brooke is just finishing up her first semester at Wesley Theological Seminary. Her next step will be an interview with the District Committee on Ordained Ministry in December. We're so excited for her as she begins the next part of her journey to ministry!

ONE LEADERSHIP TEAM

At our Church Conference last month, the move to one Leadership Team was approved. This change will take effect in the new year. Team members for the new team and the separate nominations team were also approved.
