Today's Stewardship Pearl

Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments." -Matthew 22:37-40

Veterans Day Service November 9

WHAT: Veterans Day Service & Reception
WHEN: Sunday, November 8, 2026, 4:00 p.m.; reception following
WHERE: Saint Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, 8011 Douglas Avenue, Dallas, TX 75225
GUEST PREACHER: The Rev. Dr. Razz Waff, Major General, U.S. Army (Ret.)
OFFICIANT: The Rev. Dr. Christopher D. Girata, Rector
WHO: Veterans, active-duty service members, military families, church members, and the Dallas community; free and open to the public.

Behind every military uniform is a story of service, sacrifice, and often a family whose life has been shaped by that commitment. This Veterans Day, Saint Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church invites the Dallas community to do more than say thank you: to come together in prayer, blessing, remembrance, and support for those who have served and the families who stand beside them.

On Sunday, November 8, at 4 p.m., Saint Michael will host a Veterans Day Service featuring guest preacher the Rev. Dr. Razz Waff, Major General, U.S. Army (Ret.). The Rev. Dr. Christopher D. Girata, Rector of Saint Michael, will officiate.

A centerpiece of the service will be a festive procession in which veterans from every branch of the United States Armed Forces will be invited forward for a moment of recognition and appreciation. The service is also expected to include participation by Patriot PAWS Service Dogs. A reception with the Heritage Brass Band and refreshments will follow in Saint Michael's new Atrium.

Veterans Day honors not only those who wore the uniform, but also the sacrifices made by military families and the responsibility communities share in supporting veterans after their military service. Following the opening of its new facilities, Saint Michael is creating opportunities to bring the broader Dallas community together through worship, service, and meaningful connection.
