SERVING GOD'S MISSION

Jesus is the true model of a servant. He chose to give his time, wisdom, energy, and ultimately, his life so that others could become part of God's family and live fulfilling lives. Our families, communities, churches, and nations don't become all they can be until each person finds their way to meaningfully contribute in the area they feel called.

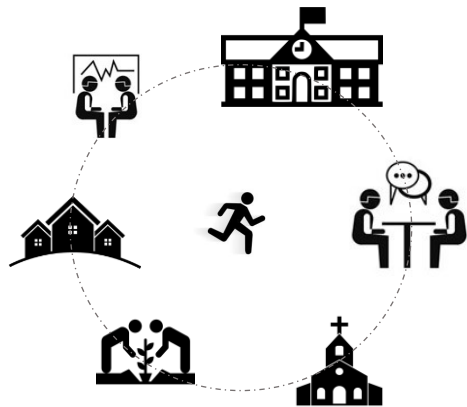

"For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many." Matthew 20:28 (NLT)

"Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given us." Romans 12:4-6

SERVING IN GOD'S MISSION

Serving is a lifestyle, not an action we turn on or off. WE ARE FOLLOWERS OF JESUS WHO HELP OTHERS FOLLOW JESUS. Every person who is a follower of Jesus is a part of fulfilling his mission. Yes, we have been saved. But we are also saved for a purpose. His mission is to make disciples of all nations--to help every person come into personal relationship with God, through Jesus, and to help them grow in that relationship.

LOCALLY

FRIENDSHIP EVANGELISM

Sharing our faith with our friends, family, coworkers, and the people we are surrounded by is the most natural way to impact people for Jesus. Investing in relationships through friendship, mentoring, and inviting them into our homes and church community is powerful!

LOCAL COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Strategically ministering to the non-church community in our local area is another meaningful way we can expand our influence to people who are lost. That involvement may include outreach projects, volunteering with non-profit organizations in the community, praying, or simply talking about Jesus.

LOCAL CHURCH

Serving in your local church, building mentoring relationships with others, leading groups, and creating a welcoming church environment are ways YOU, local church, accepts and grows people in the image of God.

GLOBALLY

Every disciple should understand and support God's desire to reach nations with his love and truth. There are still nations and people groups who have never heard of Jesus and have no hope. As believers, our calling is to take the hope of Jesus to all nations. We can all do that in one of three ways:

Go

Some disciples are called to leave their homes and family and travel to foreign nations and share the gospel. These assignments may be short-term or long-term.

Pray

All disciples can help pray for missionaries who are taking the good news to people around the world.

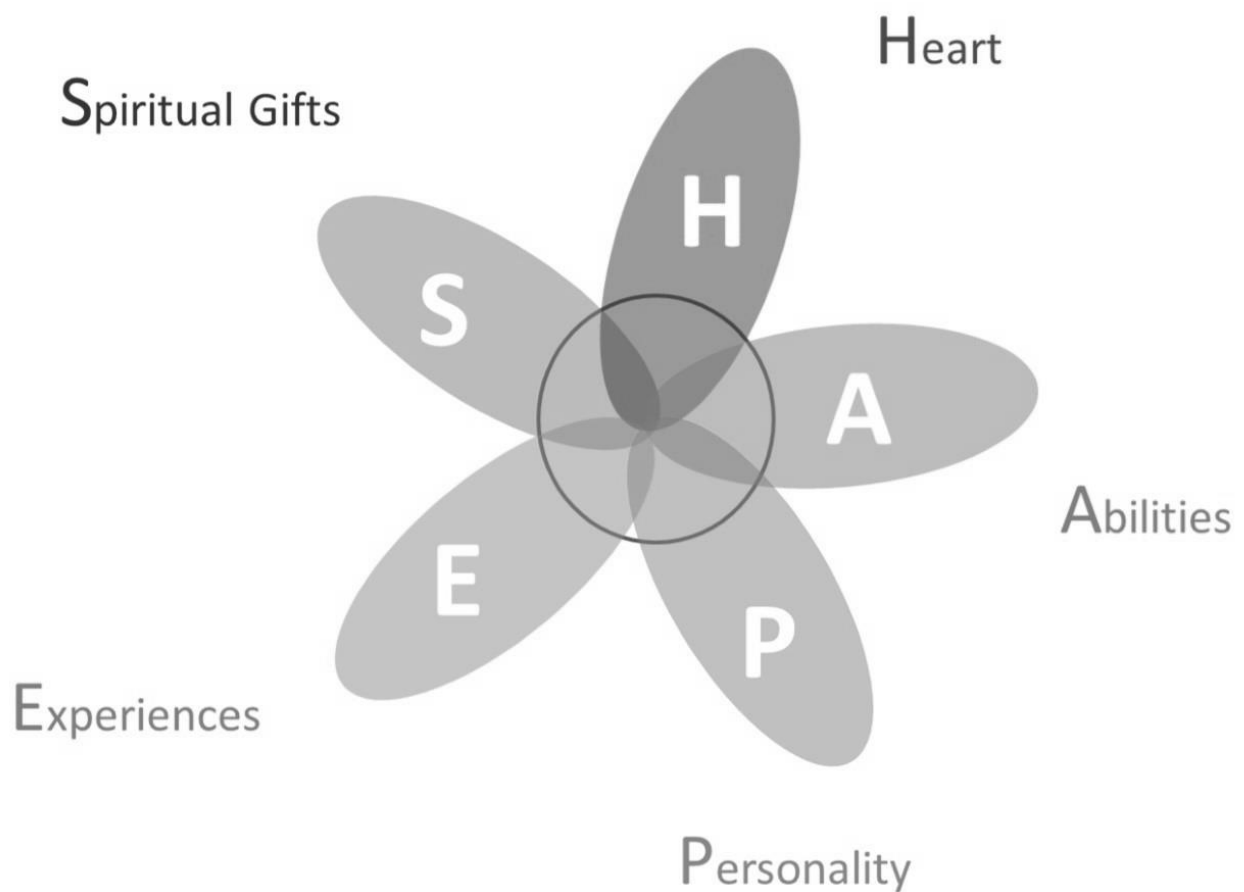

Give

Some disciples are called to help support missionaries who travel overseas by financially giving.

GOD SHAPED YOU FOR A PURPOSE

We have been designed by God and influenced by life experiences in ways that help us build others up. We are uniquely shaped for service. Ephesians 2:10; Psalm 100:3; Romans 12:6-8; 1 Corinthians 12:12-31.

S - SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Spiritual gifts are divine attributes the Holy Spirit gives to every member of the Body of Christ. They cannot be earned or achieved, but are free “gifts” given by God to minister to others for the purpose of building up the Body of Christ.

See Appendix S on page 7 for an example of the Spiritual Gifts Discovery Survey.

Spiritual Gift Survey

1. There are different types of spiritual gifts listed in the scriptures. Romans 12:3-8; Ephesians 4:11-13; 1 Corinthians 12:7-11
2. All believers have a variety of spiritual gifts that are used to varying intensities. These gifts influence people in different ways. 1 Peter 4:10; Romans 12:5; Matthew 25:14-30; 1 Corinthians 12:18

Check out Petra’s Spiritual Gift Survey Here: www.giftsurvey.petra.church or scan the QR Code!

H - HEART PASSIONS

A passion is a deep desire given by God that compels you to devote your time, resources, and energy toward specific areas of interest or need. This devotion results in making a difference in the lives of others. Your passions may be directed toward certain types of people, various issues or causes, or specific areas of ministry.
Philippians 2:13; Revelation 17:17

See Appendix H on page 18 for the Passion Assessment.

A - ABILITIES AND TALENTS

A talent or ability is a natural or acquired skill or gift that enables you to excel above others in a specified area.

See Appendix A on page 19 for the Abilities & Talents Assessment.

Passions, Abilities, and Talents Assessment

1. A person may possess hundreds of talents and abilities. Finding your predominate ones and using them in your place of service will greatly enhance your fruitfulness.
2. Talents and abilities may be part of your genetic code, while other skills may be acquired. They may be used in both natural and spiritual arenas.

Check out Petra’s online Passions, Abilities, and Talents Assessment by scanning the QR Code!

P - PERSONALITY

God gives each person a unique personality, mode of thinking, and set of internal characteristics that determine how we relate to every person, situation, and daily challenge. Being aware of your personality type will help you know how to better serve others with fulfillment and fruitfulness. Psalm 139:13-14

See Appendix P on page 223 for the Team Personality Strengths Assessment.

E - LIFE EXPERIENCES

Life experiences are your personal history. These include the memories you've made and the trauma or blessings you've lived through. These events or seasons influence your perception of the world. God wants to use all your life experiences, good and bad, for his purposes. Romans 8:28

See Appendix E on page 25 for the Life Experiences Assessment.

Here are a few examples:

- Family Life
- Education
- Career History
- Ministry Experiences
- Tragedies, Trials, and Challenges
- Great Accomplishments and Victories

NEXT STEPS

Serving is a lifestyle, not a volunteer position. Regardless of where you serve, whether in the church or the local community, you represent Jesus and his church. Serving is not defined by position, time, or location; a servant is always ready to serve anyone, anywhere!

SPIRITUAL GIFT DEFINITIONS

Proclamation

The God-given ability to proclaim the truth of God and the mind of God with boldness, which brings conviction to the hearers regardless of the consequences. Acts 2:14-40; Acts 7:1-60; Acts 17:32-34, Acts 26:24-29; I Thessalonians 1:5

Craftsmanship/Artistic

The God-given ability to further the kingdom of God through artistic, creative means. Exodus 30:22-25; Exodus 31:3-11; Acts 9:39; Acts 16:14

Apostle

The God-given ability and calling to plant, establish, and give general leadership over a number of churches with a unique authority in spiritual matters, which is spontaneously recognized and appreciated by those churches. This gift can function on a lay level of helping plant churches and new ministries but is most often considered a five-fold leadership gift as seen in Ephesians 4:11. I Cor. 3:10; I Cor. 12:28; I Cor. 12:12; Acts 15:1-2; Gal. 2:7-10

Hospitality

The God-given ability to use your home as a means to entertain and bless the people of God or those in need of food and shelter. It also includes the ministry of making people feel welcome in the church. Romans 12:13; Romans 16:23; Acts 16:14-15; I Peter 4:9; Hebrews 13:1-2

Teaching

The God-given ability to search out and expound to others spiritual truth from the Word of God in a systematic way so that others will learn. This gift can function on the lay level or on a five-fold leadership level as seen in Ephesians 4:11. Romans 12:7; Acts 18:16; Colossians 3:16

Missionary

The God-given ability and calling to use your spiritual gifts to minister to those of another culture on a long-term basis. I Corinthians 9:19-23; Acts 8:4; Acts 13:2-3; Acts 22:21; Romans 10:15

Helps

The God-given ability to invest the talents you have in the life and ministry of others. The desire to be available to help out in any area where there is a need. I Corinthians 12:28; Romans 16:1,2; Acts 9:36; Luke 8:2,3; Mark 15:40-41

Tongues

The God-given gift to speak to God in a language you have never learned. This can be either a personal prayer language for personal edification and intercession and/or the spontaneous gift to receive and communicate an immediate message of God to his people in a language you never learned. It may involve the language of men or the supernatural language of angels. I Corinthians 12:10; I Corinthians 14:2, 3, 13-19; Mark 16:17; Acts 2:1-13; Acts 10:44-49

Exhortation

The God-given ability to minister words of comfort, consolation, encouragement, and counsel to others in such a way that they would be helped or healed. Romans 12:8; I Timothy 4:13; Hebrews 10:25; Acts 14:22

Music/Vocal

The God-given ability to use one's voice in the singing of praises and joy to the Lord for the benefit of others. I Chronicles 15:16; II Chronicles 5:12-13; II Chronicles 20:21; Deuteronomy 31:22; Judges 5:3

Evangelist

The God-given ability and calling to share the gospel with unbelievers in such a way that men and women turn from sin and make commitments to serve Jesus Christ. Some with this gift work primarily within the realm of the local church community; others have broader ministries throughout the world on a fivefold leadership level as seen in Ephesians 4:11. II Timothy 4:5; Acts 8:5-6, 26-40; Acts 14:21; Acts 21:8

Healing

The God-given spontaneous gift to minister at specific times physical, spiritual, or emotional healing to those in need apart from natural means. I Corinthians 12:9; Acts 3:1-10; Acts 5:12, 16; Acts 9:32-35; Acts 28:7-10; Mark 16:17-18

Administration

The God-given ability to understand clearly the immediate and long-range goals of a particular problem or need in the Body of Christ and to devise, organize, and execute effective plans for the accomplishment of these goals. I Cor. 12:28; Acts 6:1-7; Acts 27:11; Luke 14:28-30; Titus 1:5

Miracles

The God-given spontaneous gift in which God uses you to perform an act which transcends the laws of nature. I Corinthians 12:10, 28; II Corinthians 12:12; Acts 9:36-40; Acts 19:11-20; Romans 15:18-19

Pastor

The God-given ability and calling to commit yourself to the care and nurture of members of the Body of Christ. This motivation may be directed to children, youth, or adults. It may function on a lay level of care or a fivefold leadership level in the church as seen in Ephesians 4:11. I Peter 5:1-3; I Timothy 3:1-7; John 10:1-18

Faith

The God-given gift to believe for the impossible, which is beyond the normal faith potential. It is the impartation of faith to accomplish a specific task, face potentially overwhelming circumstances, or persevere when facing dangerous situations. I Corinthians 12:9; Acts 16:16-18; Acts 11:22-24; Acts 27:21-25; Romans 4:18-21

Service

The God-given ability to identify the unmet needs involved in a task related to God's work and to use your time and resources to meet the practical material needs involved. This gift, in contrast to the Gift of Helps, is more intentional in identifying needs and taking the initiative to do something about it. Romans 12:7; Acts 6:1-7; Galatians 6:2,10; II Timothy 1:16-18; Titus 3:14 -18

Discernment of Spirits

The God-given spontaneous gift to know whether the spiritual source behind a certain behavior or word is divine, human, or satanic. I Corinthians 12:10; Acts 28:3-6; Acts 5:1-11; Acts 16:16-18; I John 4:1-6; Matthew 16:21-23

Intercession/Prayer

The God-given ability to pray for extended periods of time on a regular basis and see frequent and specific answers to your prayers to the degree much greater than that which is expected of the average Christian. It also functions on a prayer-partner level in which a person feels called to pray for a leader, ministry, or people on a regular basis. James 5:14-16; I Timothy 2:1,2; Colossians 1:9-12; Colossians 4:12-13; Acts 12:12; Luke 22:41-44

Words of Knowledge

The God-given spontaneous gift of knowledge of facts or details about a person or situation that has not been discovered through natural inquiry. I Corinthians 12:8; John 4:17, 18; I Corinthians 2:14; Acts 5:1-11

Giving

The God-given ability and incentive to give generously and joyfully of financial and material resources to the Lord's work. Romans 12:8; Mark 12:41-44; II Corinthians 8:1-7; II Corinthians 9:2-8

Words of Wisdom

The God-given spontaneous gift of divine insight in how to respond to complex and difficult problems and situations. I Corinthians 12:8; I Kings 3:16-28; I Corinthians 2:1-13; Acts 6:3,10; James 1:5,6; II Peter 3:15

Mercy

The God-given ability to feel compassion for the suffering of others and the motivation to minister to them in order to ease their burden. Romans 12:8; Matthew 20:34; Matthew 25:34-40; Luke 10:33-35

Tongues Interpretation

The God-given spontaneous gift to interpret a message given in tongues into the language of those present. I Corinthians 12:10, 30; I Corinthians 14:13; I Corinthians 14:26-28

Leadership

The God-given ability to motivate and lead others in accomplishing goals related to the Lord's work. Romans 12:8; Acts 7:10; Acts 15:7-11; I Timothy 5:17; Hebrews 13:17

Prophecy

The God-given gift to sense and speak the mind and will of God under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit concerning the present or future for a person, group, or situation. There are also those with this gift who are sometimes called and affirmed by the church as Prophets on a recognized leadership level as seen in Ephesians 4:11. I Corinthians 12:10, 28; Joel 2:16-18; I Corinthians 14:1, 31, 39

Craftsmanship/Manual

The God-given ability and motivation to work and create with your hands that which will bless and increase the work of God in the earth. Exodus 30:22-25; Ex. 31:2-11; II Chronicles 34:9-13 ; Acts 9:39; Acts 16:14; Acts 18:3

Music/Instrument

The God-given ability to play an instrument in a way that the church is strengthened and God is glorified. II Kings 3:15; I Chronicles 15:16; 16:41-42; II Chronicles 5:12-13; 34:12; I Samuel 16:16

Dramatic Arts

The God-given ability to use drama and acting to proclaim God's message and inspire people in their Christian growth. Ezekiel 4; Ezekiel 5; Ezekiel 12

APPENDIX A: ABILITIES & TALENTS ASSESSMENT

WHAT ARE THE METHODS YOU USE TO HELP OTHERS

Circle the three talents and abilities that best describe you from the list below.

CARING - I really enjoy assisting those who are hurting or in need. There's nothing better than seeing a smile on the face of someone touched by a thoughtful deed.

COMPLETING - It's not how you start that matters but how you finish. I love to work through the details to ensure that the task is completed thoroughly.

CREATING - I enjoy creating materials and systems that don't already exist as well as working on new and innovative ways to convey concepts visually or audibly.

DESIGNING - I love to work with technology or materials to produce new and better ways of communicating.

GATHERING - Pulling together a team of people or resources to accomplish a task or meet a need is something I love giving my time to.

HOSPITALITY - I like to use my home as a place to entertain others, and I enjoy being a part of a team that cooks, serves, or caters to others.

INTERCESSION - I love to pray for extended periods of time and sense the Holy Spirit directs me toward specific areas to pray. People consider me to be an intercessor.

LEADING OR OVERSEEING - I love to lead the charge. I prefer to direct what's going on rather than follow. Helping others to see the big picture and then working together with them to accomplish the task is something I love to do.

MAINTAINING - I enjoy working with well-established programs and helping to further their success.

MOTIVATING - I love to inspire others to do their very best. I love the challenge of helping people see the value and benefits of investing their time, talents, and resources.

OVERCOMING - It's doesn't matter how high the mountain or how long it's going to take—I'm going to get there! I love challenges, and I find a real thrill in figuring out ways to preserve and get the result.

PERFECTING - I'm always looking for ways to improve things that already exist. Being at and performing to the highest level of excellence is important to me.

PERFORMING - Lights, camera, action! I love to be in front of people and help them understand and enjoy a message through creative communication such as drama, music, and the arts.

PIONEERING - I love to take risks. The idea of trying something new pushes my button.
Repairing - If it's broken . . . then I can fix it. I love to tinker with things and get them back to working order.

SHARING OR GIVING - I love to use my resources—time, energy, and money—to make sure others' needs are taken care of.

STRATEGIZING - Contemplating all the options and figuring out the best path to get the desired result is something I enjoy.

Based on this list, is there a part of the process that you get excited about helping with?

APPENDIX E: LIFE EXPERIENCES ASSESSMENT

I. EVALUATING LIFE EXPERIENCES

Take a moment to think about how your life experiences (ministry, family and life, education, career, challenges, health, finances) have helped shape you for serving opportunities. Write your thoughts below:

MINISTRY

What past ministry experiences have you had?

How have these experiences helped you?

How could you use these ministry experiences to serve others?

FAMILY AND LIFE

What areas of your family and life experiences stick out most to you (i.e., where you lived, how you were raised, religious background, etc.)?

Do you see any connection between these family/life experiences and how you could use these to serve? If so, how?

EDUCATION

What type of special education have you experienced that could be used to serve others (i.e., computer, administration, video, layout and graphic design, counseling, auto mechanics, carpentry, etc.)?

CAREER

How do you think you could use what you have learned in your career experiences to serve others?

CHALLENGES

What is the most painful experience that has happened in your life (i.e., divorce, addiction, past sin, disease, death of a loved one, etc.)?

What have you learned from that experience(s)?

How do you think that experience(s) could be used to help others?

HEALTH

Are there any specific health issues in your life that would be worth mentioning?

Paired with your life experiences, how could these health issues be used to help others facing the same challenge?

FINANCIAL

How would you describe your financial history?

What financial successes and failures have you experienced?

How could your financial experiences be used to help others?

Thank you for taking the time to go through these assessments to find your S-H-A-P-E!
We hope you enjoyed learning more about yourself, and we look forward to plugging you into our Petra Community whenever you're ready!
