CONNECTING IN COMMUNITY

Relationships are not peripheral to growing in your faith in God; they are central to it. Through Jesus, we are adopted by our heavenly Father into his family. In his community, we practice living in compassion, truthfulness, and vulnerability. That takes time and commitment. God desires us to experience the joy and benefits of his presence in healthy and life-giving relationships.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Do you have a favorite Scripture verse that has personal meaning to you? Why?
2. Do you have any special ways that you connect with God in worship or prayer? For example, in nature, listening to worship music in the car, praying with other believers, etc.

A LIFESTYLE OF SCRIPTURE, WORSHIP, & PRAYER

These God-focused habits connect us to God and transform our thoughts, lifestyles, and character to match his. We need to practice these privately, as well as in our Sunday services, small groups, and mentoring relationships.

READING & STUDYING YOUR BIBLE

1. Describe one thing we learn from each verse. Why is the Word important?

- 2 Timothy 3:16-17
- Titus 1:9
- Matthew 4:4
- Hebrews 4:12
- Psalms 19:7 -9

Practice: Read the Bible daily from the Petra App or join a Bible study group.

HABIT OF WORSHIPING WHOLEHEARTEDLY

Worship is the passionate expression of love and devotion to God for who he is and all he has done. God's ultimate desire, and life's ultimate aim, is for us to love him (God) with all of our heart, mind, breath, and strength. Ways we see people express worship in the Bible are singing, shouting, clapping, kneeling, standing, lifting hands, bowing, sacrificing, a lifestyle of obedience, meditation, and tithing. Mark 12:30; Romans 12:1-2; Psalm 47.

Practice: Join us at a Deeper Night worship event.

PRAYING REGULARLY

1. Prayer is the act of heartfelt communication with God, and our personal relationship with God is developed through consistent prayer. Different types of prayer include: relationship, adoration, confession, requests, intercession, and thanksgiving on behalf of yourself and others. 1 Thessalonians 5:17-18; Luke 11:1-13; John 15:4-9.
2. When we pray with other believers, the Church releases God's power and authority into our communities, and we see transformation. Matthew 18:18-20; Acts 4:31; Ezekiel 22:30; Isaiah 56:7; Ephesians 6:12.

Practice: Find a consistent time and place to pray daily and find a prayer partner to pray with weekly.
