Lamb of God Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod

14th Sunday after Pentecost

10:30 am Worship Service

September 14th, 2025

Welcome to all who are joining us for worship this day, especially to any guests who are among us.

We are so glad you are here and want to get to know you!

Please fill out our online Record of Fellowship by scanning the QR code

If you wish to join or to have a Pastor call, please indicate that in the online form as well.

As you enter the Sanctuary...

Before the service, Speak to God; During the service, Let God Speak to You; After the service, Speak to One another

If you are a Guest visiting with us this morning...

- If you want to know more about us, talk to an usher, an elder, or visit our Information Desk in the Atrium. You'll also find info about our Sunday School and/or Adult Bible classes there.
- For assistance, please ask an usher at the entrance of the Sanctuary.

To the Parents of Our Young Children, May We Suggest...

- Relax! God put the 'wobble' in children; don't feel you have to suppress it in God's House. This house of worship is their HOME. There's Children Worship Bags for the kids in the back of Church, too.
- Quietly explain the parts of the Service and actions of the Pastor, Ushers, the Choir, etc. to your children.
- Sing the Hymns, Pray and Say the responses. Children learn Liturgical behavior by copying you.
- If you have to leave the Service with your child, feel free to do so. We have a Family Room in back with sound and windows to allow you to worship while calming or feeding your children – but please come back. No one will care if you come and go. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me."
- The way we welcome children in Church directly affects the way they respond to Church, to God and one another.

What We Believe About the Lord's Supper:

- Receiving the Sacrament is not merely a matter between God and the person, but a "communion" - something done in "community" and a public confession of a "common union".
- We believe in the real presence, that the body and blood of Jesus is truly present—in, with, and under the bread and wine (Matthew 26:26-29) and is not merely a symbolic representation.
- If there are communicant members of a congregation of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS) or of congregations which are in altar and pulpit fellowship with the LCMS, such as The Lutheran Church – Canada (LCC), the Lutheran Synod of Mexico and The American Association of Lutheran Churches (AALC), we welcome them to come to the Altar to receive the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
- If there are members of other Christian denominations or those who have questions/doubts about the Sacrament, we also welcome them to come to the Altar, crossing their arms over their chest. Our Pastor will speak a blessing over those persons.
- Scripture teaches that Holy Communion is to be a confession of a common faith (1 Cor. 10:17; Acts 2:42) and that those who are unprepared may do themselves spiritual harm (1 Cor. 11:23-32). We do not thereby presume to question another's faith in Christ but hold this historic position out of love for God's Word and in care for souls. Even as we try to respect the practices of other Christian denominations, so we ask others to please respect our practice.
- If there are those who wish to remain in their pews during Holy Communion, we ask that they join us in praying for the great day when all in Christ may be one, as He is with the Father (John 17:21). Any who would like to discuss this practice at more length may make an appointment with our Pastor to do so.

The following prayer may be helpful during your time of self-examination: Lord, search my heart - Have mercy on me and forgive me all my sins. Thank You for the gift of Your son, Jesus Christ, whose body was broken and blood was shed on the cross for me. As I come to Your Supper grant me faith to recognize the gifts You give to me in this sacrament – Your own body and blood for the forgiveness of my sins. Thank You for coming to me in this holy sacrament to forgive me and strengthen my faith in You. Amen.

Welcome

- P Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns,
C and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?
P I have been young, and now am old,
C yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread.
P The eyes of all look to you,
C and you give them their food in due season.
P You open your hand;
C you satisfy the desire of every living thing.
P Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints,
C for those who fear him have no lack!
P The young lions suffer want and hunger;
C but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
- ALL Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
- P Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns,
C and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

Invocation

- P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

Gathering Song

Music helps draw us into an attitude of prayer and praise.

Processional Hymn

We are a "singing church," so we follow the advice of the apostle Paul to teach and admonish "one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord" (Colossians 3:16). This hymn may be one of praise, prayer, or reflection on the season of the church year.

Invocation

From the Latin "to call upon." The spoken words at the beginning of the service remind us of our Baptism.

Confession and Absolution

- P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
C But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination)

- P Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.
C Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have given to You only from our abundance, not from our need. We have waited to act until we felt secure, forgetting that faith requires risk. We have hoarded what You meant us to share, doubting Your promise to refill what we pour out. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.
P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

Prayer of the Day

- P The Lord be with you.
C And also with you.
P Let us pray.
C Lord God, You sustained the widow of Zarephath with a jar of flour that never ran empty and a jug of oil that never ran dry. Teach us to give You the first portion of what we have, trusting that You will multiply what remains for our good and Your glory; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LITURGY NOTATIONS

Confession

We examine ourselves and publicly confess our sins. Such a confession at the beginning of the service provides a climate of acceptance. In spite of our sins, we are accepted by God, and in turn we can accept each other. *I John 1:8-10 [Rom. 7:14-8:4]

Absolution

Christ said to his disciples, "If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven"*. The pastor speaks for God and announces God's cleansing forgiveness to those who made confession. *John 20:23.

Song of Praise

Biblical truth in poetic form, to turn our attention to the Lord who is great and "most worthy of praise."

Prayer of the Day

The main thoughts of the day are collected, or summarized in this short prayer. The collects for the season of the church year have come to us from the rich treasury of the church's heritage.

Old Testament Reading*1 Kings 17:7-16

And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land. Then the word of the Lord came to him, "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink." And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." And she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die." And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel, 'The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the Lord sends rain upon the earth.'" And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God!

Children's Message*Hannah Prindiville*Epistle Reading*Hebrews 11:1-6

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God!

Gospel Reading*Mark 12:41-44

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the 12th chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

Hymn of the Day

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Nicene Creed

From the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D., which spoke against the Arian heresy that claimed Jesus was not equal to God the Father in the Holy Trinity and took no part in creating the world. Which is why the words, And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made" were included. The Creed also addressed the error that the Holy Spirit proceeded only from God the Father, which removed Jesus' taking part in sending the Holy Spirit to His people. Which is why the words, "And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son..." were included.

Offering

Our words reflect the words God spoke to Abraham, "I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing." (Genesis 12:2)

Thank you, Lord,

Genesis 12:1-3, Ephesians 1:3, 2 Corinthians 5:21

Prayer of the Church

Since God's people are called to 'pray without ceasing' (1 Thess. 5:17), we take this time to collect all our prayers to pray with one heart and mind as the people of God.

- P Gracious God, You have promised that those who give will receive, pressed down, shaken together, running over. We trust all our needs to Your loving care; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
- C Amen.

+ SACRAMENT +

- P The Lord who called us in our Baptism and summoned us in His Word to follow where He leads now invites us to His supper. We gather at His table, assured of His presence and grateful for His sacrifice. Christ comes to us in the bread and wine. We are forgiven and strengthened for service.
- C Amen.

Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9–13)

- P Lord, remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:
- C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Communion Confession

- P The Lord's Supper is God's gift for Christians who are properly instructed. (1 Cor. 10:17; Act 2:42) In communing, we want people to receive Christ's body and blood for their good. (1 Cor. 11:23-32) This means that as you come to the Lord's Table you affirm with each communicant that Jesus is your Savior and Lord; and with Lutheran (LCMS) Christians you confess:
- C I recognize and confess that I am a sinner. I repent of my sin and ask God's forgiveness.
- C I believe that Jesus Christ is my only Lord and Savior from sin, Satan and death.
- C I believe that the risen Christ is really present in the Sacrament and, under the form of the bread and wine, I receive His true body and blood for the forgiveness of my sin and the strengthening of my faith and life. (Augsburg Confession – Article X)

Words of Our Lord Matthew 26:26–28; Mark 14:22–24; Luke 22:19–20; 1 Corinthians 11:23–25

Pax Domini

- P The peace of the Lord be with you always.
- C And also with you.

Agnus Dei

“Behold The Lamb”

Verse 1 Behold the Lamb who bears our sins away
Slain for us and we remember
The promise made that all who come in faith
Find forgiveness at the cross
So we share in this Bread of Life
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of peace
Around the table of the King

* John 1:29; Is. 53:7

Mine are days that God has numbered I was made to walk with Him
Yet I look for worldly treasure And forsake the King of kings
But mine is hope in my Redeemer Though I fall, His love is sure
For Christ has paid for every failing I am His forevermore
Mine are tears in times of sorrow Darkness not yet understood
Through the valley I must travel Where I see no earthly good
But mine is peace that flows from Heaven And the strength in times of need
I know my pain will not be wasted Christ completes his work in me
Mine are days here as a stranger Pilgrim on a narrow way
One with Christ I will encounter Harm and hatred for His name
But mine is armour for this battle Strong enough to last the war
And He has said He will deliver Safely to the golden shore
And mine are keys to Zion city Where beside the King I walk
For there my heart has found its treasure Christ is mine forevermore
Come rejoice now, O my soul For His love is my reward
Fear is gone and hope is sure Christ is mine forevermore
Come rejoice now, O my soul For His love is my reward

LITURGY NOTATIONS

- 1 Before the throne of God above
I have a strong and perfect plea
A great High Priest whose name is Love
Who ever lives and pleads for me
My name is graven on His hands
My name is written on His heart
I know that while in heav'n He stands
No tongue can bid me thence depart
No tongue can bid me thence depart
- 2 When Satan tempts me to despair
And tells me of the guilt within
Upward I look and see Him there
Who made an end of all my sin
Because the sinless Savior died
My sinful soul is counted free
For God the Just is satisfied
To look on Him and pardon me
To look on Him and pardon me
- 3 Behold Him there the Risen Lamb
My perfect spotless Righteousness
The great unchangeable I Am
The King of Glory and of grace
One with Himself I cannot die
My soul is purchased by His blood
My life is hid with Christ on high
With Christ my Savior and my God
With Christ my Savior and my God

The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and  $\text{✠}$  give you His peace.

C Amen.

Post-Communion Collect
"Thank the Lord," "Lord, now let Your servant go in peace," or an appropriate hymn is sung. The purpose is to offer our thanks and express our faith in what God has done for us and promised to do for us in the future.
* "Lord, now you let Your servant go in peace", Luke 2:29f

Benediction

The blessing spoken by the pastor is the Aaronic benediction, the blessing God first gave to Aaron and the other priests to speak to the people of Israel. Jesus Christ, our High Priest, has come to us in a special way through this Holy Meal. The blessing is God's promise that Christ will go with us as we leave the church and return to the world to serve Him. We say "Amen" to affirm the blessing; "So be it -- it is true!"

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Sometimes It's Hard to Ask for Help

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it is sign of weakness. So, we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan.

Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others -and allow other to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help, we've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time. (It's confidential too!)

If you need care, please contact:

- Pastor Rance Settle at pastorsettle@log.org
- Pastor Mark Payne at pastorpayne@log.org
- or visit the Stephen Ministry page at log.org.

THE FLOUR THAT NEVER RUNS OUT

Gratitude in Action • Week 2 of 5

---

1 Kings 17:16 – "The jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the Lord."

Sermon Notes

Empty Cupboard Faith

The widow was down to her last .....

The Audacity of the Ask

- Elijah asks for ..... first
- God's provision came ..... the act of trust

Law and Gospel

- Law: We withhold because .....
- Gospel: Jesus poured out ..... so ours could be filled

KEY TRUTH

God doesn't ask for what you don't have.
He asks for what you think you can't spare.

This Week's Reading: Chapter 2 of "More Than Enough"

Reflection: God's provision didn't come before the act of trust—it came because of it.

Growing in Trust: Step 2

"I commit to consistent, percentage-based giving"

- Not random amounts when I feel like it
- A meaningful portion of what God provides
- Regular as an act of worship

*What percentage would reflect your trust in God's provision?
Start where you are, not where you think you should be.*

This Week's Challenge

"You don't give because you have enough.
You discover you have enough when you start giving."

Something small but scary to let go of this week:

---

My act of trust (time, money, or control):

---

Prayer for the Week

*Lord, You know the places that feel like empty jars.
Give me faith to trust You with what I think I can't spare.
Help me see that Your supply is greater than my shortage. Amen.*

Daily Practice: Before each meal, thank God for daily bread and daily trust.

Next Week: "The Myth of Not Enough" – Matthew 14:13-21
