EVERYBODY READ

Our desire to have people read a common Bible passage is part of our Book of Faith effort. January's passage is: John 1:14

A Letter From Your Pastor

Pastor Amy Michelson

Merry Christmas!! 'Tis the season for considering how God is present in our lives, in the flesh and in other less tangible, but still meaningful, noticeable ways. God's presence might look different to each of us. It did for Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John – the gospel writers. Read through each of their accounts of Jesus' incarnation (coming in the flesh) and see how they noticed different things. We too will notice God's presence in different ways. How and where do you notice God's presence?

Epiphany (January 6th) is the official end to the Christmas season in the church. Epiphany means manifestation, a revealing, but while the Christmas season ends on Epiphany, the season to notice God's presence does not end. It is always a good time to consider and discover where, how, and through whom the presence of Love is at work. That is an intention worthy of setting in the new year, noticing Love in our lives - all the ways we receive it, bear witness to it, and are the ones to share it.

Blessings to you this Christmas season, and every season afterward, in which God's presence is still made manifest.

-Pastor Amy

A Letter From Your Deacon

By Deacon Shari

Dear Members and Friends of Peace,

During the month of January our confirmation students will be looking at the Apostles' Creed. The Apostles' Creed is our common statement of faith. We recite it together at most worship services, but do we know where it comes from and what it means? The history of the Apostle's Creed is somewhat unknown. It is derived from the scriptures but loosely evolved from early baptismal confessions in Rome, around the second century. It is now recognized as an ecumenical creed among Catholics and Protestants. The Apostles' Creed is one of three ecumenical creeds that we use. The Athanasian Creed and the Nicene Creed are the other two. These three creeds hold in common that God is fully present in Jesus, that Jesus Christ is both God and human. These three creeds are considered ecumenical because they are all accepted and used by the overwhelming majority of the world's Christians. The Apostles' Creed is split into three sections, one for each representation of the Trinity.

The first, "I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth", proclaims that we believe that God created the world (we answer the who question, not the how question) and that God our parent has dominion not only over heaven but over the earth as well.

The second section is all about Jesus. "I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead." We proclaim together that Jesus was fully human and fully God, came to earth and lived among us, died for our sins, and was resurrected. We also proclaim that not only has Jesus come but will also come again. This is the largest section of the creed because the belief in Jesus as both God and human is the core of our Christian beliefs.

The third and final section includes the third representation of the trinity but also the universal church and the core values of our faith. We proclaim, "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen". The Holy Spirit is the representation of God moving with in and around the Church, so it is in the same section where we remember that we believe in a unified Christian Church. When we say the holy catholic church, we are not talking about the Roman Catholic Church but instead are using the word catholic to mean universal, or whole. We proclaim that God is with the saints of all time and place and that in communion we are united across boundaries of time and location. We proclaim that Christ death and resurrection have promised the forgiveness of sins to all of God's people and that all of God's people having been joined through baptism in a death like his will join with Christ in resurrection. This last section proclaims that God has conquered death and life everlasting has won. Thanks be to God for that!

God's Peace,
Deacon Shari

Helping Others

One Warm Coat Collection Nov. 1-Dec. 31

One Warm Coat is a collection of clean, reusable coats and other winter wear that are then distributed to MorningStar Mission and Santa Cruz church for local individuals in need. We are grateful for our ability in all circumstances to continue in our mission to meet basic human needs. Items can be dropped off at church in the bin in the narthex. Scarves, hats, gloves, mittens and boots are also accepted. Thank you for your continued support!

Souper Bowl of Caring - Feb. 7 & 8

It's Super Bowl time! Join the team that tackles hunger! On Sun., Feb. 8, families and friends gather together to watch the Big Game, while an estimated 50 million Americans are food insecure. Imagine the impact we can make if everyone who watched the game gave one dollar or a can of food to help our neighbors in need. Show the world what it means to be a champion off the field. Join our church's effort in the Souper Bowl of Caring by donating the cost of a meal or snack. Please look for the display in the narthex on Sat., Feb. 7 & Sun., Feb. 8.

Santa Cruz's Food Pantry Needs List

We are always collecting bottled water, juice, paper products, hand soap, shampoo, toothpaste, deodorant, shaving cream, canned soup, applesauce, cereal, Jell-O, pudding, beans, rice, coffee, powdered cream, sugar, pretzels, chips, popcorn, etc. for Santa Cruz's Food Pantry. Look for the baskets by Fellowship Hall.

Help Others Fund

Alongside our regular giving that helps all kinds of people in need, we also have a special "help others" fund within our general fund. It is targeted to help people who need food or gas. We continue to be diligent in making sure the money actually goes to people in need.

Sunday School Sock Drive

During the month of January, the Sunday School group will be collecting new white socks. The youth group will be taking these socks to Morning Star Mission on January 25th to hand them out to our unhoused neighbors. We can use socks of all sizes but especially men's white socks are preferred! Thank you for sharing Christ's warmth with those in need.

ELCA Good Gifts

Through the ELCA's Good Gifts, you can find all kinds of alternative Christmas giving ideas. In short, someone who needs something, such as livestock, receives the actual animal, and your loved one knows that his or her gift is helping someone in need.

General Information

Inclement Weather Policy

Your safety is important to us, so Peace will cancel our events during the week if Summit Hill School District cancels school or their evening events. We will do our best to post on social media, send emails, and/or remind app notifications when we cancel. If the weather on a weekend is extremely bad making travel particularly dangerous, we may cancel weekend activities or even worship. We will try to make this decision early and post/send notifications as outlined above. If you do not have access to our digital platforms and would like to be notified of a cancellation, please let the office know and we will do our best to reach out to you via a phone call. We hope you stay safe and warm during these wintry months!

Worship Details

Saturday worship 5pm, Sunday at 8:30 & 11am.
8:30am service is live streamed.
