

Staff Singer Position Description

St. Peter's Episcopal Church
110 N Warson Rd • St. Louis, Mo.

St. Peter's, founded in 1868, is an Episcopal parish located in Ladue. The church employs staff singers in its two choirs: the St. Peter's Choir and the St. Peter's Singers.

The St. Peter's Choir provides musical leadership at the 10:30 a.m. service each Sunday and at additional special liturgies throughout the year. The St. Peter's Choir has been recorded professionally, and these recordings have been broadcast nationally. The St. Peter's Singers is a fully-professional choir that leads services of Choral Evensong (or a similar choral service) on the second Sunday of the month at 5:00 p.m.. The choral season runs annually from the end of August through Trinity Sunday, and there are additional opportunities to sing for summer services. Additionally, members of the choir are often called upon for weddings and funerals.
