

The Battle Over My Identity in Christ

There is an outright war to destroy, confuse, rob, distort and steal your _____ in Christ.

Millions of people are walking around trying to be someone other than who God _____ them to be.

If he can destroy what God intended for you to be, he has _____ in creating an identity crisis that will eventually destroy your life.

The devil uses _____, pain, and conflict in your life to destroy your identity.

Unresolved issues always _____ in some form of compulsion and character defects.

When you live with those character defects for a while, it is easy to _____ your defects with your identity.

Satan is trying to get you to form a _____ from those arguments and pretensions that set itself up against the knowledge of God. 2 Corinthians 10:5

God is imploring you to embrace biblical truth aligned beliefs as a mindset that helps you move towards a set of _____ that line up with God's perfect will for your life.

Those entities are working together to throw _____ talking points, words, and thoughts to make you believe that you are not accepted, secure, significant, and loved in Christ.

The enemy makes us believe that our identity is found by what we do, what we don't do, or what has been _____ to us.

1. Jesus knew his _____.

2. Jesus knew his _____.

3. Jesus knew his _____.

Defeated Christians typically have two things in common: They _____ who they are in Christ, and they don't understand what it means to be a child of God.

1. I am _____.

2. I am a house of _____.

3. I am _____.

4. I am _____.

5. I am _____.

6. I am _____.

7. I am an _____ for Christ.

You are to live a life so deeply committed to Jesus that others in your sphere of influence will want to be _____ to God.

8. I am a _____ of God.

9. I am _____ by my Father in Heaven.

10. I am _____!

The remedy for the confusion is simple:

1. Believe who God says _____ is.

2. Believe who God says _____are.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.