A study of the book of Romans

We have died to the law through Christ, are now wedded with Christ, with Spiritual power to bear fruit for Christ.

Our sin is bad (vs. 8-11)

- Sin seized the opportunity to break God's law (v. 8)
- Sin came alive to bring about death (vs. 9-11)

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. Moreover, by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it —the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

Romans 3:21-24

Unashamed

A person stands on a grassy hill with their arms outstretched, silhouetted against a backdrop of layered, misty mountains. The scene is captured in a dark, moody, and slightly desaturated style, with a central vertical band of slightly lighter grey. The overall atmosphere is contemplative and expansive.

3) Our Savior is great.

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Romans 8:1-4

“Although my memory’s fading, I remember two things very clearly: I am a great sinner and Christ is a great Savior.”
