MARK 10:46-52

Jesus traveled through the villages and towns to talk to people and help them. One day Jesus and His disciples went to the town of Jericho to talk to the people.

A man named Bartimaeus was in the crowd of people waiting to see Jesus. Bartimaeus sat beside the road. Bartimaeus was blind and could not see. He could not do any work to earn money, so he asked people to give him money.

Bartimaeus heard the crowd talking near him. Bartimaeus heard people shouting that Jesus was coming down the road.

Bartimaeus began to shout Jesus' name. "Jesus, Jesus! Please help me!" Bartimaeus shouted over the crowd.

People around Bartimaeus told him to keep quiet and stop shouting.

But Bartimaeus kept calling to Jesus to help him.

Jesus stopped. He told someone to call Bartimaeus. Someone told Bartimaeus to stand up because Jesus wanted to talk to him.

Jesus asked Bartimaeus, "What is it you want Me to do for you?"

Bartimaeus answered, "Teacher, I want to see with my eyes."

Jesus loved Bartimaeus and cared about him. Jesus healed Bartimaeus.
