MARK 14:3-9; JOHN 12:1-8

Jesus was having dinner at a man's house. Many people were there, including Mary, Martha, and Lazarus, Jesus' friends.

Mary had a beautiful jar and filled it with special oil. Then Mary went to Jesus.

Mary broke the jar and poured the expensive oil on Jesus' head. Mary began to cry and her tears dripped on Jesus' feet. Mary began to wash Jesus' feet with her tears. Then Mary dried Jesus' feet with her long hair. Mary kissed Jesus' feet. Mary covered Jesus' feet with the special oil.

Oh, how Mary loved Jesus!

The people at the dinner were shocked. They thought Mary had wasted the special oil.

Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has done a wonderful thing for Me. This woman washed My feet and wiped them with her hair. She hasn't stopped kissing My feet, and she has covered them with oil. You did none of these things. People will remember the love this woman has shown for Me."

The people in the house watched these things and wondered about Jesus' words.
