PSALM 139

A psalm in the Bible tells how wonderful God is for creating people and loving them. Some people believe that David wrote this psalm to praise God and worship Him.

Psalm 139 is a song about people. David knew that God made him and all people, and God cares about every person. Like the very first people God made—Adam and Eve—we are made in God's image (to be like Him).

David wrote: "God, You know me. You know when I sit down and when I stand up. You understand my thoughts. You see me come and go, and You know all the things I do. Even before I say a word, God, You already know what I plan to say."

David loved God so much. David knew God made him just the way God wanted. David knew God had a plan for David to be born. David asked God to help him see and understand the things God wanted David to do. "I will obey Your instruction and follow it with all my heart," wrote David.

David's psalm praised God. "I will praise You, God. I have been remarkably and wonderfully made. You created me and already know about every day of my life. All my ways are before You. Search me, God, and know my heart. Teach me Your ways."
