JOHN 7:1-52

Jesus and His disciples had been traveling in Galilee, but the disciples thought Jesus should go to Judea and show the people the amazing things He was doing. The disciples went ahead to the festival, and Jesus stayed behind.

After a while, Jesus decided to go to Judea to the festival. Jews were looking for Jesus and asked, "Where is He?" But no one would say where Jesus was.

When the festival was half over, Jesus walked to the temple and began to teach. Jews at the temple were amazed and asked, "How can this man know so much? He hasn't been to school."

Jesus answered, "The things I teach are from God. He sent Me to teach you, and He tells me what to say."

This made the people angry. They did not believe Jesus. The angry people wondered why officials didn't stop Jesus from teaching and saying He was from God.

But Jesus told the people, "You know Me, and you know where I am from. It is true that God sent Me."

Still the people wanted to stop Jesus from saying these things. But Jesus knew He had more work to do.

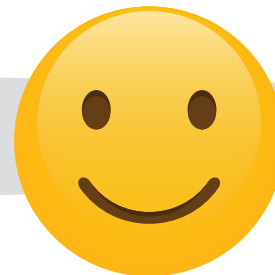

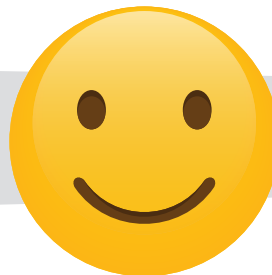

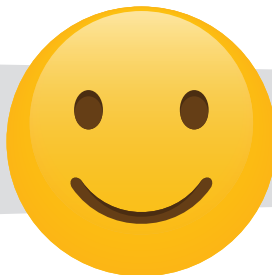

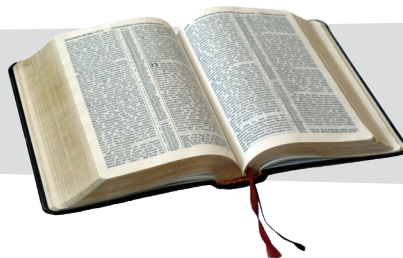

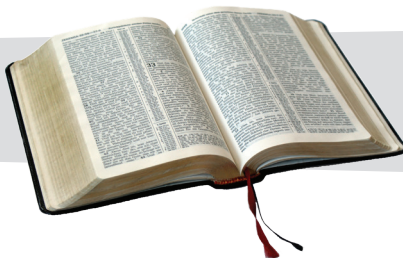

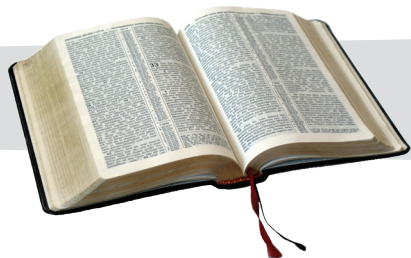

On the last day of the festival, Jesus stood in front of the people and said, "Believe in Me."

Some of the people said, "Truly, this man is the Messiah." But others still did not believe that Jesus was the One God sent.

God Sent Jesus

God sent Jesus, His only Son, to love people and help them.
This meant that Jesus was like no one else—He was the Messiah.
