JOHN 9:1-11,35-39

Jesus left the temple with His disciples. As Jesus walked, He saw a man sitting near the temple. Jesus knew the man could not see. The man had been blind since he was a baby.

The disciples wondered why the man was blind, and Jesus explained that this happened so people could know about God. Jesus said God sent Jesus to help people see. Jesus said, “I am the Light.”

Jesus stopped in front of the man who was blind. Jesus made some mud in His hand, then He spread it on the man’s eyes. “Go,” Jesus said to the man. “Wash in the pool.”

So, the man left and did what Jesus said. When the man came back to Jesus, he could see!

Neighbors and people in the town were surprised. They knew the man had not been able to see before now. They asked the man, “How can you now see?”

The man answered that the One named Jesus was the person who healed him. The man explained to the people what Jesus did.

Later, Jesus talked to the man. Jesus asked, “Do you believe that I am the One God sent to help people?”

The man answered, “Yes! I believe You!” And the man worshiped Jesus.
