2023 Let Freedom Ring Scholarship Recipients

Photo - Jada Turner (R), Rheis Granger (L), William Corbin, III (C) and Hailey Crusenberry (Not Pictured)
The Let Freedom Foundation (LFR) is pleased to announce the awards for our 2023 Scholarship Essay Contest.

Jada Renee Turner, First Place Award, is a student at Jamestown High School. In the fall, Jada plans to study Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The Let Freedom Ring Foundation congratulates Jada for displaying excellence in researching and writing her essay in an exemplary manner and is confident that she will continue on the path of excellence through her undergraduate years at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The LFR supports applicants' post-secondary educational pursuits, provides life-long opportunities for students, and is committed to continually investing in young people. Every act of helping young people helps turn the world into a better place.
Rheis Granger, Second Place Award, is a student at Jamestown High School. In the fall, Rheis plans to study Kinesiology at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville.

The Let Freedom Ring Foundation congratulates Rheis for displaying excellence in researching and writing her essay in an exemplary manner and is confident that she will continue on the path of excellence as she embarks on a new and exciting chapter in her life at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville.

The LFR supports applicants' post-secondary educational pursuits, provides life-long opportunities for students, and is committed to continually investing in young people. Every act of helping young people helps turn the world into a better place.
William Edward Corbin, III, Honorable Mention Award, is a student at Bruton High School. In the fall, William plans to attend Christopher Newport University to study Business Management.

The Let Freedom Ring Foundation congratulates William for displaying excellence in researching and writing his essay in an exemplary manner and is confident that he will continue on the path of excellence as he embarks on a new and exciting chapter in his life as he continues his studies at Christopher Newport University.

The LFR supports applicants' post-secondary educational pursuits, provides life-long opportunities for students, and is committed to continually investing in young people. Every act of helping young people helps turn the world into a better place.
Hailey Nicole Crusenberry, Honorable Mention Award, is a student at Warhill High School. In the fall, Hailey plans to attend Waynesburg University in Waynesburg, PA, to study Forensic Chemistry.

The Let Freedom Ring Foundation congratulates Hailey for displaying excellence in researching and writing her essay in an exemplary manner and is confident that she will continue on the path of excellence as she embarks on a new and exciting chapter in her life as she continues her studies at Waynesburg University.

The LFR supports applicants' post-secondary educational pursuits, provides life-long opportunities for students, and is committed to continually investing in young people. Every act of helping young people helps turn the world into a better place.