Redeemer

LUTHERAN

Mission: The Redeemer Family exists to know Jesus, grow in Jesus, and share Jesus.

Focus of the Day

Before kings, authorities, and leaders, we are not to think of ourselves more highly than we ought. Rather, we should posture ourselves to be humble servants, ready to hope for and receive gestures of grace, hospitality, and wisdom. Divine love permeates actions; divine speech evokes truth; divine contentment curbs the propensity towards avarice. Divine forgiveness destroys sin's consequence. Without merit, we receive the grace of Christ - grace that invites us to His feast of forgiveness.

Campus Connect-Join Us in Connecting Students

Every year, students graduate within our Lutheran churches and step onto college campuses across Michigan. These years are often where faith is tested, stretched, and by God's grace, deepened. Our passion at Campus Connect, Michigan District is to help ensure that no student makes that journey alone. That's where we come together...would you be willing to share the names of your high school graduates and where they'll be attending college this fall? Visit michigandistrict.org/campusconnect/. Help bridge the gap between home and campus, connecting your students to trusted ministries—or involving them in the planting of new campus ministries—that will continue helping them grow in their relationship with Jesus. Every student matters, and we promise to handle their information with great care and confidentiality.

KIDS IN THE DIVINE SERVICE

What is the “lectern”?

When the Lord calls us together for worship, He feeds us with His wonderful Word and Sacraments. In most churches, the Bible sits on a stand called a “lectern.” The word “lectern” comes from the Latin word “lectio,” which means “reading.”

Why is the Bible read from a lectern?

For thousands of years, God’s living Word has been read to His people. When this Word is read to us, we remember that God continues to deliver His promise of salvation to us through faithful preaching and teaching. With the help of the lectern, our church Bible is in a great place for reading to all of God’s people!

Parents: Before or after the service, allow your child to walk up to the lectern in order to get a better look. Allow them to look at the church Bible. Remind them to be reverent in God’s holy places. During the service, before the readings, remind them that they are about to hear God’s Word, and the lectern holds the Bible that they will hear God’s wonderful promises from!
