

Reformation Day

October 29, 2023

Pastor's Corner for October 29-November 4

Freedom! (Romans 3:19-28)

A couple months ago, I attempted to change out a light switch in our kitchen. It seemed like a pretty simple project, and I didn't want to spend the money on an electrician to do a simple job. It sounded simple enough that when I called an electrician to schedule an appointment (just in case!) he told me I should be able to figure it out on my own. He obviously didn't know me! When I went to change out the light switch, I did everything right (or at least I thought I did), only for the lights to still not work. I didn't know how bad I was at electrical work until I actually tried to do it.

Through the law comes knowledge of sin (Romans 3:20b)

That story about me and electrical work is how the Law works. It shows us our sin, it shows us our need for someone else to enter into our lives and fix the mess we have made, to bring forgiveness and new life into our hearts. We are given the Law of God to follow. It is the guide for how we are to live as people of God, but it doesn't earn us our salvation. Fixing the light switch is a good thing to know how to do, but if I can't figure it out, I'm not thrown out of the house. That's where the Gospel comes in!

We are justified by His grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (Romans 3:24)

God knew that we could not live out His Law perfectly. He knew that it would only show us how bad we are at attempts to follow His commands, so He made a plan (Romans 3:25) to send His Son into the world to give us the free gift of His eternal favor and new life! Instead of throwing us out of His home, He gives us an eternal home, a secure place to live for all time!

Does that do away with the Law? Do we no longer have to follow the will of God? Of course, we do! What has changed is that we no longer do it for the benefit of God, He doesn't need our good works, now we do it for our neighbor, they need our good works. We have been freed from the need to earn favor before God so that we can serve our neighbor. Or, as Rev. Dr. Michael Berg states in his book on Vocation, "Christ must free us from work so that we can work."

That's an interesting thought, isn't it? But that is the message of the Reformation in a nutshell. Christ has freed us from our sins, giving us the free gift of grace, that leads to the free gift of eternal life! You and I did nothing for it! It is all God's free good will towards an undeserving people, and we should want others to freely receive such a good gift. This is where God's work changes our work. We are now free to work for others, pointing them towards the Savior who waits and wants to give them His free eternal love.

Your free brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

same time. Contact: Jamee Thieme

Men's Weekly

Join us for the Men's Weekly on Mondays, 7:00-8:15 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center, for fellowship and study. Contact: Tom Gebbia

This eight-week study of The Chosen, Season 3, runs from October 16-December 4 and led by Ron Bostick. Discover what it means to belong to and be blessed by God. We all have to choose: the wide road that leads to destruction or the narrow path that leads to life. The third season of the groundbreaking television show, The Chosen, picks up with how Jesus' followers apply His teaching to their lives.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study and Fellowship

This ongoing study meets Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am in the Fellowship Hall and is led by Pastors Jonathan and Zach.

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Mama Bear Apologetics... Also for Papa Bears

Join us for this ongoing book study! There are two identical sessions each week - Tuesdays, 2:00-3:00 pm or Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center. Contacts: Pastor Zach Sarrault, Erika Hulse

Learn how to raise kids who think critically, love Biblically, and stand firm against the cultural tide. This book study will equip you to teach your kids how to affirm Biblical beliefs about what is true and what is false. Through transparent life stories and clear, practical applications—including prayer strategies— these Mama Bears offer you tools to train yourself, so you can turn around and train your kids.

New Christ and Culture

Join us for a study of Christ and Culture on Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00 pm from October 25-December 13 in the Fellowship Hall. Contact: Pastor Jonathan Blanke

This 7-week guided conversation on the relationship between Christ and Culture, introduced by Dr. Jon Diefenthaler, former LCMS Southeastern District President and Concordia Seminary scholar, of H. Richard Niebuhr and his classic book. We will discuss: How has the Christian church understood the relationship between Christ and culture historically? How do we understand that relationship today? What does all of this mean as we strive to live out the Gospel of Christ and serve our God who is King of both the "secular" realm as well as the realm of the Church? We will probe these questions using the context of current events.

Men with Kids

Join us for a study of The Book of Romans: Part 2 on Wednesdays, 6:30 pm in Room 247, Family Life Center. Contact: Tom Gebbia

The Book of Romans is considered by many to be one of the most important books ever written on the Christian faith. Writing to Christians, the apostle Paul defines the gospel, explores its depths, and discusses its significance and implications for the Christian life.

Family Life Center Gym

Want to have fun and help kids who are hungry?

All families are invited to join in a food packaging event. The mission of Kids Against Hunger is to feed families around the world who are hungry.

How does it work?

Participants make an assembly line on two sides of a 10-foot table. Using a funnel between the first four people, each of the four will add a scoop of their ingredient (rice, beans, spices, etc.), then pass the bag to the next person in the assembly line for sealing and labeling of the bag. Finally, bags are packed in cardboard boxes for shipping. All supplies are provided!

Parents and children of all ages are invited to participate.

- Children, age 7 and older with their parent or responsible adult, may help bag the food in an assembly line that ends with a sealed bag of dry food.
- Children younger than 7 years old will decorate the boxes that hold the bags of packaged food. There will be adult supervision for this age group of children.
