

Reformation Day

October 26, 2025

Pastor's Corner for October 26-November 1, 2025

The Best News Ever (Revelation 14:6-7)

Here's some news from this past week: On Monday, the Amazon Web Services (AWS) outage caused us to lose the connection to the cloud-based service we all rely on to build our weekly worship bulletins. Then on Tuesday, from roughly 1 PM to 3:30 PM, a Duke Energy power outage in the Cary area meant we were without electricity both at the church and at both schools. Amazing how much you can still do by the light of day! As for this writing, the day is Wednesday. So far so good!

The man-made miracles that power our homes and ensure both the backup and recovery of important information we use every day are not immune to mishaps and even minor disasters. How reassuring, then, that the only rescue that matters — our rescue from sin and death — doesn't depend on us! Neither is the proclamation of an "eternal gospel" — a message of God's victory and the claim of God on the hearts of all people of every age and in every corner of the globe — a matter left to the best tech or the smartest minds who communicate it. The author of Revelation sees GOD'S commitment to ensuring the message goes out! "Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead," he writes, "with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people" (14:6). Today, tomorrow, and every day until the end of time, that "eternal" message WILL go out! It WILL endure. It still delivers God's rescue. It still calls sinners everywhere to repentance... and worshippers in all corners of the globe to songs of praise! That's the best news there could be.

This weekend we remember the heritage of our church and the events associated with the Protestant Reformation. The oft-quoted solas, some of which emphasize that we are saved "by grace alone, through faith alone, in the Word of God alone," are just as important today as they were over 500 years ago. The Scriptures tell us that Jesus lived a perfect life, died on a cross for our sins, and rose again to give us eternal life. All of that happened "outside" of us, in real history! All so that each one of us can say, "I'm saved because of Jesus. Not because of me." That's not only Good News. It's the best news ever.

A very blessed Reformation Day to everyone!
Pastor Jonathan

Adult Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday Morning

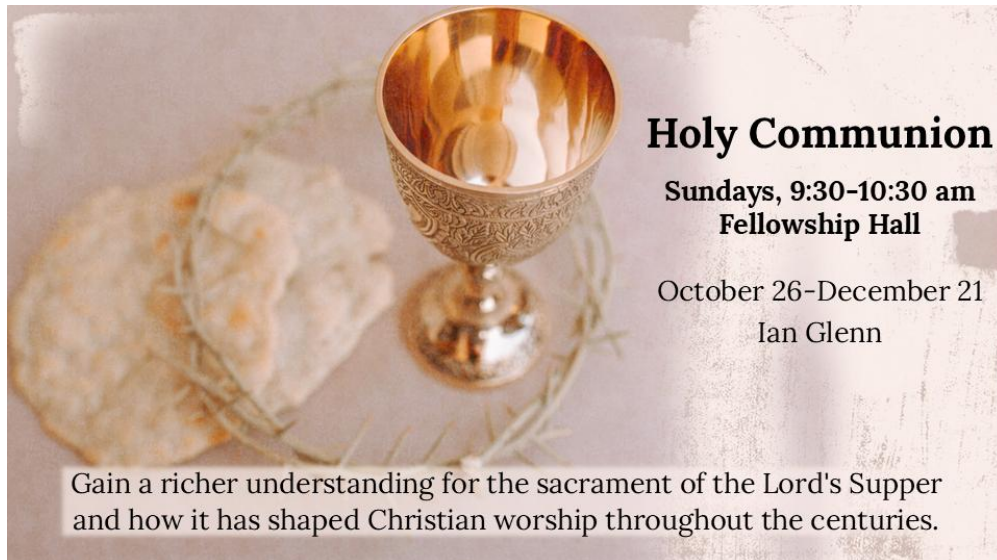

New Holy Communion

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am ~ October 26-December 21

Fellowship Hall

Ian Glenn

Using Luther's Small Catechism and the Bible, this class will be focused on the Lutheran understanding of Holy Communion, where it comes from in the Bible, and what we can learn about it from the early church writers. There will also be discussion on the similarities and differences between the Lutheran understanding of the sacrament with those of other Christian denominations in an effort to help prepare participants for discussions that might arise in day-to-day life. It is hoped that participants will gain a richer understanding and appreciation for the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and how it has shaped Christian worship throughout the centuries. Bring your Bible and Luther's Small Catechism. Some will be available.

Tuesday Morning

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am ~ September 2-May 19

Fellowship Hall

Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday Evening ~ Supper & Scripture

Room 240, Family Life Center

Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director, and Pastor Zach Sarrault

For Parents, Grandparents, Guardians – All Welcome!

Parenting happens in habits. We make meals, get in cars, answer questions, discipline, and do bedtime. Using the book, Habits of the Household by Justin Whitmel Earley, we will see how these ordinary routines are extraordinary opportunities to live out the love of God in profound ways.

New Bring Your Questions (“This Is the Church 2.0”)

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ November 5, November 12, and November 19

Room 151, Family Life Center

Pastor Jonathan Blanke

Come do a slower, deeper dive than what is possible in our usual “This Is the Church” class on questions related to doctrines we teach and confess. No books other than Bibles are needed.

November 5: Faith and Politics

How does our church approach important social issues, and why?

November 12: Faith and Science

How does our church understand/receive the discoveries of science while upholding the truths of faith?

November 19: Faith and Unfaith

How does our church engage a world where rejection of the Christian faith challenges our relationships either family and friends?

Women of the Word (WOW)

Everlasting: Peaks, Valleys, and Grace in the Psalms

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:45 pm)

September 3-December 10

Fellowship Hall

Jamee Thieme

All women are invited to this discussion-based study using the book, Everlasting: Peaks, Valleys, and Grace in the Psalms by Christina Hergenrader. Feel free to jump in, even though we already started!

Anxious. Worthy. Ashamed. Nostalgic. Lonely. Secure. This is just a handful of emotions we observe in the Psalms – and in our day-to-day lives, too. In this women's Bible study, you'll be guided through 25 psalms, digging into their genres, perplex emotions, glimpses of Jesus, and more.

New Men's Ministry ~ Two Roads

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:30 pm)

October 29-November 19

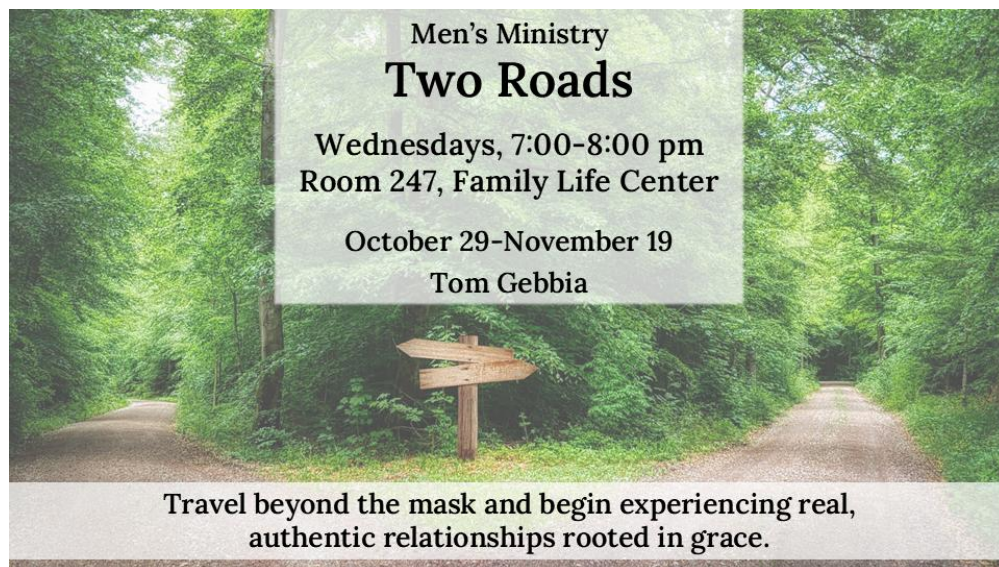

Room 247, Family Life Center

Tom Gebbia

When many of us first met Jesus, we imagined a life full of authentic relationships, vibrant faith, and deep joy. But down the road, we find ourselves exhausted from trying to keep up, frustrated by our habitual \ issues, or just plain burnt out. We feel like we're faking it more often than not, and bizarrely our faith communities often end up feeling like the place we need to hide our true faces the most. We thought this road would lead to abundant life, but lately it feels like a grinding drudge.

What if there was a different road? A road that led to real, authentic community — the kind where the worst parts of you can be known, and you'll be loved more in the telling of it? What if we could let our true faces be seen in our families, friendships, churches, and workplaces, and we could see others' true faces too? What if that life of being authentically known and loved is real, and Jesus is inviting you into it Through videos, discussion questions and scripture, Two Roads is designed to help the group travel beyond the mask and begin experiencing real, authentic relationships rooted in grace.

New Sacred Marriage

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm ~ October 29-December 17

Room 251, Family Life Center

Pastor Alan Shaw

Whether you are married now or plan to be someday, this workshop will look at marriage as much more than a union between two people. It is a spiritual discipline ideally suited to help you know God more fully and intimately. Sacred Marriage shifts the focus from marital enrichment to spiritual enrichment in ways that can help you love your mate more.

Whether it is delightful or difficult, your marriage can become a doorway to a closer walk with God. Everything about your marriage — from the history you and your spouse create, to the love you share, to the forgiveness you both offer and seek — is filled with the capacity to help you grow in Christ's character. Books will be provided.
