Of More Value than Many Sparrows

(Luke 12:7)

A beloved television show has returned for another season: All Creatures Great and Small (PBS). Season 6 Episode 1 just premiered last weekend. Why do I like this show so much? Maybe because it is filmed in the Yorkshire Dales. There are endless views of spectacularly beautiful scenery. Another reason, I suspect, is (you guessed it) the animals! Who doesn't delight in the image of a knowledgeable vet tending to the needs of rheumy-eyed cows or faithful and hardworking sheepdogs? But I think the characters on the show are what really have me hooked. They are dedicated to their vocation. Sigfried, Tristan, and James are not only hardworking veterinarians. They do what they can to care for the people in their community, too. A farmer who is struggling to make ends meet, an elderly neighbor who is living alone, a grieving family, or a young person who is just trying to find his way in life...all are people with "wounds" to be tended. As a result, we viewers are led time and time again to the realization that—as important as the animals are—the HUMAN life depicted on the show is especially sacred, beautiful, and a thing to be cared for. It is all based on the life of a real man: James Herriot. But All Creatures Great and Small is, of course, pure fiction. Perhaps even a bit of escapism. Still, the message of the season premiere comes at an opportune time for a focus on the sanctity of human life this weekend at RLC.

Tending to human life from its very beginning to its end is our calling as Christians—though the culture of violence in which we find ourselves in the real world can make it challenging to stand up on behalf of human life in all of its diversity and stages of development. Jesus once spoke to those who feared others who could "destroy the body" with these words: "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid. You are worth more than many sparrows!" (Lk 12:6-7) Jesus would demonstrate just how much more you and I and all the world are worth...not only by healing those distressed in body and spirit. He would ultimately give up His own life on a cross. All so that you and I might enjoy Life that begins today and lasts forever! He empowers us to be His voice to a world on edge and numb to the many threats to physical and emotional well-being: No matter who you are, you are valuable. You matter. You are a person created in God's image. Human life is sacred in God's eyes. It is important to us too.

I know I stand alongside all of you in saying how grateful I am that the sanctity of human life "from the womb to the tomb" is a priority at Resurrection! We call upon the grace of God to empower us to speak up for, work for, and provide for all human life to the best of our abilities.

Join us this weekend as we highlight the work of our congregation in tending to the needs of the disabled, those in prison, the unborn, the elderly, and so many more. As you do, prayerfully consider your own involvement and what God is empowering you to do to support human life today!

Special Voters' Meeting February 1 @ 12:30 PM

Please join us for a special voters' meeting February 1 as we gather to discuss the results of a Ministry Expansion Campaign Preliminary Study and what recommended next steps might be. We will gather in the main sanctuary. Please take time out of your busy schedule to join us!

Peace and joy,
Pastor Jonathan

Please note, the church office will be closing early (1:00 pm) on Friday, January 16 and will be closed on Monday, January 19 for Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Prayers of the Church

Sanctity of Life Sunday

January 18, 2026

As we celebrate and mark the sanctity of life this year, the Human Care Committee would like to share how our church family affirms life all year long through our own ministries and our ministry partners.

The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod states in their Creedal Response to Life

Why do we love and care for life at all stages?

God the Father Created us. Every life is a gift.

God the Son redeemed us. Every life is hallowed.

God the Holy Spirit sanctifies us. Every life is purposeful.

Our church provides financial support, prayer, and many volunteers to those who are:

Hungry: NeighborUp (formerly Western Wake Crisis Ministry and Dorcas Ministries), Food Bank of NC, Meals on Wheels, Inter-Faith Food Shuttle

Disabled: Blind Ministry, The Coffeehouse

Unhoused: Habitat for Humanity, Families Together, PLM

In Prison: Prison Alliance

End of Life / Chronic Illness: Transitions of Wake County, Lutherans for Life

Sharing God's Love in the Southeastern District: Mission Partners SED, Mid-Atlantic Lutherans in Mission

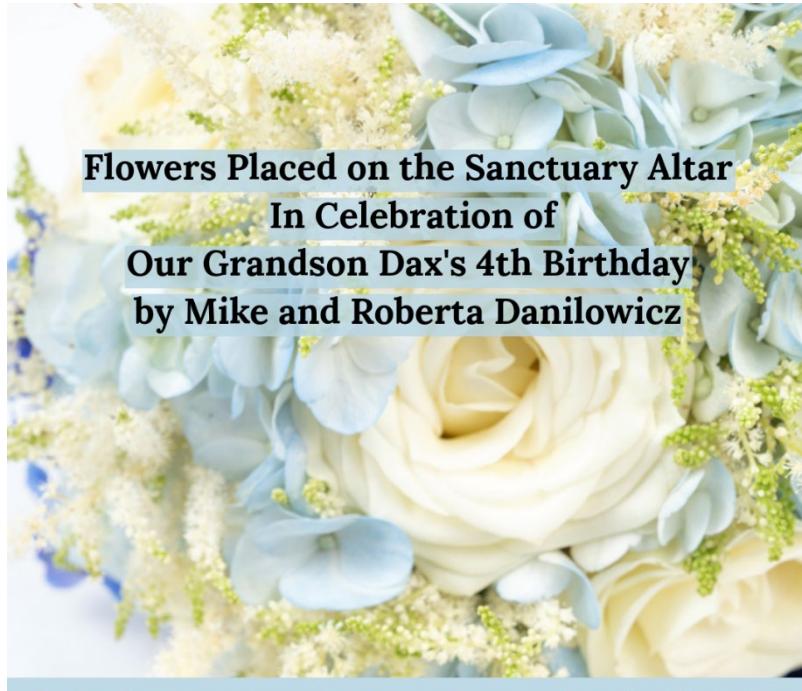

Seeking Prenatal Care: Gateway Women's Center, NeighborHealth

Seeking Family Focused Affordable Healthcare: NeighborHealth

Seeking Support Through Family Crisis: Safe Families for Children

Recovering from Disaster: Lutheran World Relief, Helene Recovery (Through Mission Partners SED and Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Asheville)

The Human Care Committee will provide a Temple Talk and brochure information regarding many of these organizations on Sunday, January 18. Please come visit our display, ask questions, pick up a brochure, volunteer to help or join our committee!

Christmas Store

Resurrection Lutheran Church,

Thank you so much for your generosity and partnership in collecting toy donations for this year's Christmas Store. Because of your willingness to participate, you helped make Christmas brighter for families right here in our community.

Through your support, the Christmas Store was able to serve 877 children from 396 families, offering parents the dignity of choosing new toys to give their children at Christmas. Your efforts – hosting toy collections, encouraging participation, and sharing the heart of this mission – played a vital role in making that impact possible.

We are deeply grateful for your time, energy, and compassion. It's a joy to partner with organizations like yours to serve local families.

Thank you again for being part of this meaningful work. We look forward to continuing this partnership in the future!

With sincere appreciation,
Christmas Store

Sunday Morning

Christianity's Influence on American Literature

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am ~ January 4-February 15

Fellowship Hall

Larry Cameron

A nation's culture is defined in large part by its literature. Since many of our earliest settlers came seeking freedom to practice their Christian faith, much of what they wrote reflects a rich Biblical heritage. Writers in following generations continued that tradition.

We will examine poetry and prose selections from more than a dozen famous American writers, including Anne Bradstreet, John Greenleaf Whittier, Countee Cullen, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Stephen Crane. This study will reveal how widespread, and enduring has been the Bible's influence on our literature.

All materials will be provided in each session. Please bring your Bible as we trace the links between Scripture and each literary selection. Some will be available.

Fellowship Hall

Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday Evening

Christian Parenting - The Spiritually Vibrant Home

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ January 7-February 11

Room 240, Family Life Center

Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director, and Pastor Zach Sarrault

We all long for homes where we can thrive and flourish. What does it take to have a spiritually vibrant household? Don Everts invites us to contemplate what the Bible says about households and consider what a new research project has revealed by pulling back the curtains on everyday households of faith.

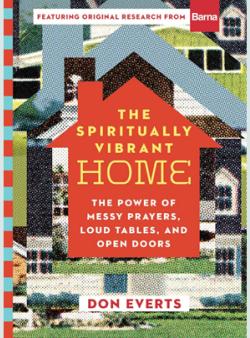

The project shows that some of the healthiest, most vibrant homes extend beyond the nuclear family and include people that may not be biologically related but feel like family. In the end you might just be surprised by how God wants to work in and through your household. And you'll have practical steps for nurturing a vibrant household of faith, no matter what stage of life you are in.

Bring Your Questions: Faith and Science

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ January 7-February 11

Room 251, Family Life Center

Pastor Jonathan Blanke

This class will be an in-depth examination of a topic introduced this past fall in Pastor Jonathan's "Bring Your Questions" class. How can (or how should) Christian theology embrace science?

Using the Bible, a report of the Commission on Theology and Church Relations of the LCMS (In Christ All Things Hold Together), and a variety of other Christian resources, we will discuss the nuanced and multi-dimensional way that science and faith can relate to one another. Topics included will be "Reading God's Word," "Science in the Christian School Classroom," "Theology of the Cross vs. Theology of Glory," and more.

Men's Ministry - A Study in Ruth

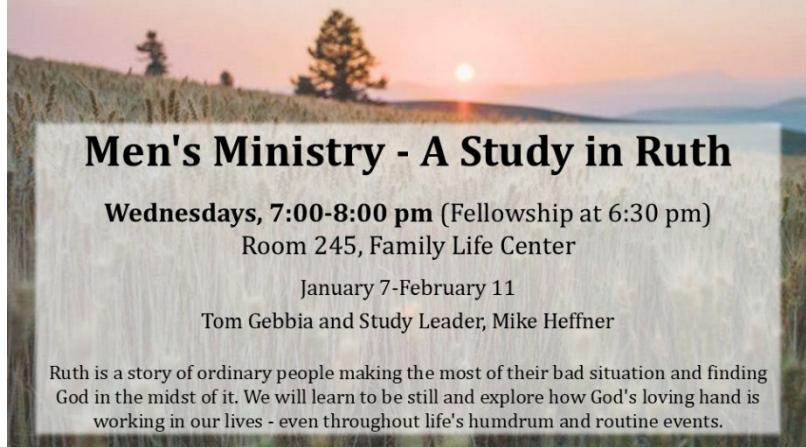

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:30 pm) ~ January 7-February 11

Room 245, Family Life Center

Tom Gebbia and Study Leader, Mike Heffner

The book of Ruth tells an unforgettable tale of purity, faithfulness, innocence, loyalty, duty, and love. Yet it is set in dark times - during the period of the judges - which is best described as an era of political and religious decentralization, frequent warfare, moral decline, lawlessness, and spiritual apostasy. This is foreshadowed in the final verse of the book of Judges, which precedes Ruth, and tells us that "in those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judges 21:25).

Against this backdrop of strife and chaos, Ruth is a story of ordinary people making the most of their bad situation and finding God in the midst of it. The book of Ruth corrects the belief that our lives must be extraordinary to be useful. Whether our circumstances are difficult, seemingly mundane, or somewhere in between, God is always working His purposes out. Throughout this study, we will learn to be still and explore how God's loving hand is working in our lives - even in the midst of life's humdrum and routine events.

Ways to Support Mission Work at Resurrection Lutheran Church

The Cross-Cultural Mission Engagement Team (CCMET) offers many ways for you to support mission work at Resurrection Lutheran Church, including serving on the committee, prayer, and financial support.

Looking to support mission work financially? There are several opportunities to do so:

1. Financial gifts to the current RLC Together In Mission Fund (TIM) support full-time LCMS missionaries.

For example, TIM funds now partner RLC with J.P. and Aimee Cima who serve the Lord in Cambodia. As gifts allow, our Cross-Cultural Mission Engagement Team plans to expand the use of TIM funds to support more LCMS missionaries.

2. Financial gifts to the new Cambodia Mission Trip Fund support short-term mission trips of our church.

To get started, in March, funding is needed to send Pastor Jonathan and CCMET member Paul Brandt to Cambodia to explore how RLC can positively impact mission work there.

Later in March, funds are needed as CCMET member Erika Hulse will spend about a week with the Stronghold Cambodia organization to explore sending an RLC mission team there.

Watch for the opportunity for members of our church community to serve the Lord in Cambodia through the short-term mission trips that result from these exploratory trips.

If you have questions about TIM or the Cambodia Mission Trip Fund, please reach out to Pastor Jonathan at jonathan.blanke@rlcary.org or Paul Brandt.
