On You Has Light Shown

(Isaiah 9:1-4)

“But there will be no gloom for her who was in anguish” (Isaiah 9:1). When we come across promises like this in the Bible, we can be filled with hope because when God makes a promise, it’s as good as done, already accomplished for us. The day is coming when there will be no more gloom and we won’t even remember what anguish was like. What a grand and awesome day that will be! While some of us hold onto that promises with joy-filled-anticipation, others of us find ourselves angered by such a promise, only thinking, “But what about my gloom and anguish today?” You may or may not find yourself in that mindset; if you don’t, I’m sure someone in your life does.

It’s hard to grapple with the future promises of God because they can seem so distant from our daily reality. Gloom seems nearer to us than God's promises. Gloom can be an accurate word to describe our day-to-day experiences, not quite as extreme as anguish and not as uplifting as joyous. Gloom is the cloudy, cold, and rainy day that we slog through, knowing we need to accomplish our tasks yet not feeling up to the calling, always having something else on our mind that distracts us from the promise of what is to come.

The longer we find ourselves in that gloomy place, the longer we "walk in darkness." That darkness can be the dark of our sin, worldly circumstances, broken relationships, or even little annoyances. Walking in the darkness of gloom can lead us into anger, frustration, despair, and pain. When we are groping around in the gloomy darkness of day-to-day life, we will never find the light on our own. We know light is out there, we know a promise is coming, but it seems too distant to make a difference. But it does.

It does make a difference, and it isn't too far away, but the promise is already accomplished for us today! "The kingdom of heaven is at hand" Jesus proclaims. His kingdom is already happening among us, in us, and through us. For those of us stumbling around in gloomy darkness, you "have seen a great light" and on you "has light shown." The promised light of Jesus has already happened to you now. That light comes shining in radiant brightness from the mouth of an empty grave, shouting victory over all darkness and all gloom that tries to weigh us down. The burden of gloom and darkness is real, but it is also defeated. No matter the darkness of your gloomy days, the light of the resurrection shines bright, winning victory of evil today.

Your shined upon brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Prayers of the Church

Dear members and friends of the Resurrection Lutheran Church family,

Out of an abundance of caution, we will be cancelling all church worship services and activities from Saturday, January 24 through Monday, January 26 because of an imminent winter storm forecasted to begin sometime mid-afternoon on Saturday and extend into the morning on Monday.

We will post a videotaped message from myself and Pastor Zach containing church announcements, sermon, prayers, and other worship content on our church's YouTube channel (youtube.com/@ResurrectionLutheranCary).

You can also look for another email over the weekend with that link. Yet another e-mail announcement will be forthcoming on Monday about what you can expect for events for Tuesday, January 27 and following.

As there will be likely power outages and dangerous road conditions, we pray that all will take time to prepare and do what is possible to help others now, before the bad weather hits. And as we do what we can to stay home and be safe in the days ahead, we continue to keep those who are working throughout the storm...those who bring us the news, those who will be repairing impacted infrastructure, and all our first responders...in our prayers.

The peace of the Lord be with you!

Pastor Jonathan

Christianity's Influence on American Literature

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am ~ January 4-February 15

Fellowship Hall

Larry Cameron

A nation's culture is defined in large part by its literature. Since many of our earliest settlers came seeking freedom to practice their Christian faith, much of what they wrote reflects a rich Biblical heritage. Writers in following generations continued that tradition.

We will examine poetry and prose selections from more than a dozen famous American writers, including Anne Bradstreet, John Greenleaf Whittier, Countee Cullen, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Stephen Crane. This study will reveal how widespread, and enduring has been the Bible's influence on our literature.

All materials will be provided in each session. Please bring your Bible as we trace the links between Scripture and each literary selection. Some will be available.

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday Evening

Christian Parenting - The Spiritually Vibrant Home

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ January 7-February 11

Room 240, Family Life Center

Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director, and Pastor Zach Sarrault

We all long for homes where we can thrive and flourish. What does it take to have a spiritually vibrant household? Don Everts invites us to contemplate what the Bible says about households and consider what a new research project has revealed by pulling back the curtains on everyday households of faith.

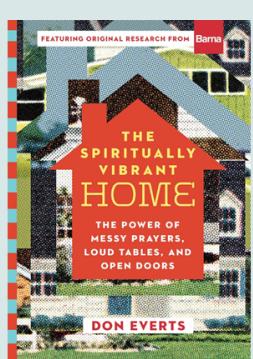

The project shows that some of the healthiest, most vibrant homes extend beyond the nuclear family and include people that may not be biologically related but feel like family. In the end you might just be surprised by how God wants to work in and through your household. And you'll have practical steps for nurturing a vibrant household of faith, no matter what stage of life you are in.

Bring Your Questions: Faith and Science

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ January 7-February 11

Room 251, Family Life Center

Pastor Jonathan Blanke

This class will be an in-depth examination of a topic introduced this past fall in Pastor Jonathan's "Bring Your Questions" class. How can (or how should) Christian theology embrace science?

Using the Bible, a report of the Commission on Theology and Church Relations of the LCMS (In Christ All Things Hold Together), and a variety of other Christian resources, we will discuss the nuanced and multi-dimensional way that science and faith can relate to one another. Topics included will be "Reading God's Word," "Science in the Christian School Classroom," "Theology of the Cross vs. Theology of Glory," and more.

Men's Ministry - A Study in Ruth

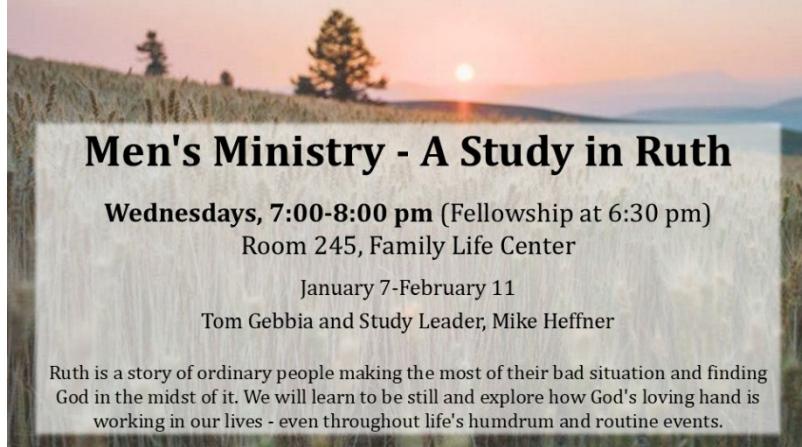

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:30 pm) ~ January 7-February 11

Room 245, Family Life Center

Tom Gebbia and Study Leader, Mike Heffner

The book of Ruth tells an unforgettable tale of purity, faithfulness, innocence, loyalty, duty, and love. Yet it is set in dark times - during the period of the judges - which is best described as an era of political and religious decentralization, frequent warfare, moral decline, lawlessness, and spiritual apostasy. This is foreshadowed in the final verse of the book of Judges, which precedes Ruth, and tells us that "in those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (Judges 21:25).

Against this backdrop of strife and chaos, Ruth is a story of ordinary people making the most of their bad situation and finding God in the midst of it. The book of Ruth corrects the belief that our lives must be extraordinary to be useful. Whether our circumstances are difficult, seemingly mundane, or somewhere in between, God is always working His purposes out. Throughout this study, we will learn to be still and explore how God's loving hand is working in our lives - even in the midst of life's humdrum and routine events.

Ways to Support Mission Work at Resurrection Lutheran Church

The Cross-Cultural Mission Engagement Team (CCMET) offers many ways for you to support mission work at Resurrection Lutheran Church, including serving on the committee, prayer, and financial support.

Looking to support mission work financially? There are several opportunities to do so:

1. Financial gifts to the current RLC Together In Mission Fund (TIM) support full-time LCMS missionaries.

For example, TIM funds now partner RLC with J.P. and Aimee Cima who serve the Lord in Cambodia. As gifts allow, our Cross-Cultural Mission Engagement Team plans to expand the use of TIM funds to support more LCMS missionaries.

2. Financial gifts to the new Cambodia Mission Trip Fund support short-term mission trips of our church.

To get started, in March, funding is needed to send Pastor Jonathan and CCMET member Paul Brandt to Cambodia to explore how RLC can positively impact mission work there.

Later in March, funds are needed as CCMET member Erika Hulse will spend about a week with the Stronghold Cambodia organization to explore sending an RLC mission team there.

Watch for the opportunity for members of our church community to serve the Lord in Cambodia through the short-term mission trips that result from these exploratory trips.

If you have questions about TIM or the Cambodia Mission Trip Fund, please reach out to Pastor Jonathan at jonathan.blanke@rlcary.org or Paul Brandt.

Saturday, January 31

We will use the Taize format of worship for the Saturday, 6:00 pm service.

A darkened setting with candles, singing of short ostinato refrains of Biblical and liturgical phrases, periods of quiet for reflection, the celebration of communion, readings, and sermon.
