Using Evil for Good (Genesis 50:15-21)

This past Friday we remember the events of September 11, 2001. A day that will forever live in the history of our nation causes us to look back on those events and everything that has happened in the past 25 years. How much has changed? Have we moved in a positive direction as a nation and world since that day?

These are hard questions to answer, either because the answer causes fear and shame or because we just don't know how to truly weigh the value of the past quarter century. There is still war and bloodshed, both in the Middle East and within our own borders. There is still discrimination between religion, race, culture, and so much more. There is still fear, anger, and hate from the national to the familial level. We are still a fallen people.

One of my favorite verses in all of the Bible comes from the mouth of Joseph, the favorite son of Jacob, most despised sibling of his brothers, when he said (speaking to his brothers in Genesis 50:20), “As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today.” In all the evil of 9/11, in all the evil that we experience and see daily, what good did God mean it for? To be honest, I don't know how to answer that question, but I do know that I am to trust that God will do this work despite my inability to understand it. This is what God does. He promises to use the evil in the world for His salvation good. God is always bending history towards His eternal work of the cross.

Reading through the Bible, we see that this is exactly who God is, One who uses evil for good. This is the theme of the entire Old Testament, preparing us for the ministry of Jesus and our own faith journey. God used the evil of Joseph's brothers to save untold number of lives throughout the known world at the time. God used the evil of Pharaoh to bring about the establishment of His nation. God used the evil of king Saul to establish an eternal King. God used the evil of Judas, Caiaphas, and Pilat to bring about the death of Jesus, using the evil of the cross to bring the victory of the resurrection.

This is who God was, is, and always will be. He will always use evil for good, even if we don't see it or understand it, we trust it to be true. It can take a long time to see the good fruits of God's salvation produced from evil seeds. Joseph had to wait 13 years after his brothers sold him to the day he rose to Pharaoh's right hand. You may be waiting now too. Even in the waiting, hold tight to The Hand that holds even tighter to you. “And I am sure of this, that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ” (Philippians 1:6).

Your trusting brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Prayers of the Church

Gracious God,

We give thanks to You for our Resurrection Lutheran Church community that You have rooted in Your overflowing grace and guided by Your Word in this place since 1978.

We come before You, praying that You will continue to gift us to be a beacon of Your light and saving hope in Jesus Christ.

May our Faith in Action campaign be guided by You for the growth of Your kingdom. Help us make Your love known to those who need to know the love of Jesus.

We pray, Heavenly Father, that You will raise up faithful stewards of Your gifts and laborers for Your harvest.

In Jesus' holy name, we pray.
Amen.

Pastor Zach Sarrault will lead this month.

Adult Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study

Sunday School Stories... They're Not Just For Kids!

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am ~ September 13-October 11

Fellowship Hall

Leader: Pastor Zach Sarrault

Creation, Noah's Ark, Jonah and the Whale, Daniel and the Lion's Den, these are some of the foundational Bible stories we are taught at a young age, then when you hit a certain age you don't hear them used a whole lot in the church. Why are we taught them as kids? Do they still matter to adults?

Join me, and bring your Bible, as we dig a little deeper into some of the "Bible classics" to see what God was doing then and how He still uses these stories today!

Monday

DivorceCare

Mondays, 6:30-8:30 pm ~ August 17-November 16

Room 140, Family Life Center

Leader: Sue Campau

Resurrection is hosting a DivorceCare support group on Monday evenings. This 13-week program supports people who are going through separation and/or divorce and provides practical tools offering more than support — it also offers the love and presence of Christ.

Women of the Word (WOW) - Seen by God, Sent to See Others

Mondays, 7:00-8:00 pm and Zoom Option ~ September 14-October 12

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am ~ September 8-May 25

Fellowship Hall

Leaders: Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday ~ Supper & Scripture

On Wednesdays, plan to join us for dinner, then stay for a variety of activities, including adult Christian education classes, Confirmation, youth events, and music ministry rehearsals!

Christian Parenting - Questions They Ask

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ September 9-April 21

Room 240, Family Life Center

Leaders: Pastor Zach Sarrault and Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director

Our kids ask us a lot of questions. Are we prepared to answer them? When was the last time we actually answered these questions for ourselves? As Christian parents, we want to be ready to answer the faith-filled questions our kids give us, answering them in a way that is faithful to God's Word. Who is God? What is the Trinity? When is Jesus coming back? Where is heaven? How do we pray? Why did He allow sin? Join us and bring your own questions as we grow in God's calling to be Christian parents.

This Is the Church

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ September 9-October 7

Room 251, Family Life Center

Leader: Pastor Jonathan Blanke

This class takes a close look at what we believe as Christians. It is a great opportunity for everyone, whether you're coming from another denomination, new to the Christian faith altogether, or simply want to review the basics of the Christian faith according to the Lutheran tradition. Bring your Bible; a catechism will be provided.

Men's Ministry - A Study of Heroes of the Faith

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:30 pm) ~ September 9-23

Room 245, Family Life Center

Contact: Tom Gebbia

Are you curious about some of the less famous men and women in the Bible? Would you like to learn more about their lives, how they responded to God's call, and how we can apply these lessons to our lives today? The Men's group will study and discuss some of these using the Heroes of the Faith Series of studies published by Concordia Publishing House.

We will study one person each week. We will learn about the cultural setting and life story of each person, examine the joys and challenges they faced and see how God forgave and empowered them. We will discuss how these lessons can apply to our lives as Christian men today. This year, we will learn about "quiet" heroes of the faith such as Hannah, Zacchaeus, Dorcas and John Mark. Led by Mark Otten.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace

All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. Across the country, too many boys and girls go without a bed — or even a pillow — to sleep on. These children end up sleeping on couches, blankets, and even floors. This can affect their happiness and health.

SHP provides all the tools and expertise that allow people with little or no experience to build all the components for a solid, wood bunk bed. It is always a fun-filled half day that ends with branding the beds. Fellowship is wonderful and the ability to solve a problem for others leaves everyone feeling a bit better about the world!

Mark your calendars for the Sleep in Heavenly Peace Bed Build Day on Saturday, October 17 from 9:00 am-12:00 pm in the church parking lot.

We will need many volunteers for the build. Register today!
