

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF RESURRECTION LUTHERAN CHURCH

OCTOBER 2026

From the Pastor

The Lord Is My Shepherd; I Lack Nothing

Psalm 23:1

This month is the month one of my favorite Psalms comes around again in the appointed readings for our worship services: Psalm 23. Any verse from this beautiful Psalm rewards its reader with treasure from heaven. But one verse in particular comes to mind in the present month of October at RLC: "The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want" (KJV, ESV, NRSV). Or as the somewhat less literal and more dynamic translation of the NIV would have it: "The Lord Is my Shepherd. I lack nothing." The focus is on God's gift of contentment.

True contentment is a GIFT from God's hand. That's why I write it in all caps. You will find self-help books and blogs and podcasts that all make the case for just how "less" is truly "more." Some will describe how meditation allows a person to find happiness from within rather than in the measure of belongings or friends or exciting life experiences that a person might have. Others will describe how downsizing can bring relief from managing too much stuff with too little time. But Psalm 23 makes it clear that true contentment is not an outcome from a person's efforts at spirituality or ability to live by a budget or rigorous cleaning regimen. Contentment is gifted by the God who cares for us...by the God who "richly and daily provides [us] with all that [we] need to support this body and life" out of "fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in [us]" (Small Catechism, Apostles' Creed Part 1). Our loving Father cared so much that He gave us His one-and-only Son who would give up His life for our sins. Jesus is now risen to life everlasting.

Sunday Morning Bible Study

Sunday School Stories... They're Not Just For Kids!

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am
Fellowship Hall

September 13-October 11
Led by Pastor Zach Sarrault

Creation, Noah's Ark, Jonah and the Whale, Daniel and the Lion's Den, these are some of the foundational Bible stories we are taught at a young age, then when you hit a certain age you don't hear them used a whole lot in the church. Why are we taught them as kids? Do they still matter to adults?

Join me, and bring your Bible, as we dig a little deeper into some of the "Bible classics" to see what God was doing then and how He still uses these stories today!

The Prophets: God's Oracles

October 18-December 20
Led by Larry Cameron

This series of classes will examine the major themes of the books of the prophets. Topics include humanity's core problem, God's perfect justice, the goal of restoration, and God's desire for a permanent dwelling place among His people. The names and titles by which God presents Himself and the key metaphors He uses also reveal much about the God whom we worship.

Those attending need bring only their Bibles. Additional handouts will be provided.

What is there, truly, to fear or worry over? All our needs are not only known by our God but taken care of, by Him!

Not long ago I was communicating with an RLC member who was updating me about the status of a family member's health. At the time, the news was not encouraging. But the last sentence spoken was: "God is good." Was that statement this person's prayerful reminder to themselves in the face of a setback? Or was it a confident affirmation of a heartfelt truth? I suspect it was likely a bit of both! What mattered was that the Word of God called this fellow sheep of the Good Shepherd to find sufficiency in Christ...the One who forgives our sins and gives us a final triumph over sin and death. That indeed is where true contentment is found.

Out of this spirit of contentment we find ourselves engaged with our world at RLC again this October. RLC Piecemakers will be displaying their beautiful quilts to be dedicated to those in need through Lutheran World Relief over the weekend of October 3-4. Our church's Faith in Action Capital Campaign Commitment Weekend comes around the following weekend, October 10-11. I am so grateful to all of you who have already made pledges to the campaign! If you have not yet had a chance to do so, I invite you to prayerfully consider making a pledge during one of our worship services that weekend. The Saturday after that, October 17, is our yearly "Sleep in Heavenly Peace" bed build. Please circle the date on your calendar for a chance for service, fun, and fellowship! Then the month wraps up with our Installation of New Members, Reformation Weekend, and Fall Festival activities over October 24-25. We have so much to give thanks for and so much to find contentment in as the cool and beautiful weeks of autumn unfold!

The Lord is our shepherd. We lack nothing! Or, as we might say today and every day this month: "God is good." We live our lives this month as the God of all good things leads and enables us.

Peace and joy in Christ,
Pastor Jonathan

The Piecemakers are nearing the end their quilting year which culminates with Blessing of the Quilts during all worship services, October 3 and 4.

They have already completed over 200 quilts ready to send to Lutheran World Relief for those in need. Everyone looks forward to this and the annual sale of quilts and crafted items before and after services.

We appreciate the fantastic support of this ministry by our congregation. And hope you plan to attend! Several different, unique, and one-of-a-kind items will be available to purchase.

Summer 2026 News

Though the focus for Resurrection Lutheran Church (RLC) during the past few months has been on the Faith in Action Campaign, your RLC Council has kept busy during the summer months. During the September Council Meeting, the Council voted to establish the Strategic Focus Pastor Blanke has been talking about for several years; specifically, “SUPPORT OUR SCHOOLS, ENGAGE THE NATIONS, SERVE ALONG SIDE OUR COMMUNITY.” This is something you will see more often in publications and letterheads to remind us of our commitment to the Lord’s Mission here at Resurrection.

Council members are now being more proactive within the many of the organizations at Resurrection. We now have Council members participating on the Resurrection Lutheran School (RLS) Board, the Resurrection Lutheran Preschool (RLP) Board, Facility Management Team (FMT), Resurrection Safety Team, and the Endowment Committee. Council members also participate in each of the SMART Goal Teams established two years ago: Crisis Care, Church/School Partnerships, Digital Platform, and Facilitating Christian Discipleship Within the RLC Community. All of this helps keep the full Council aware of ongoing activities at Resurrection.

The Council has been tracking many other notable things completed during this past summer which include:

- Major computer network upgrade for the entire Resurrection Campus (special thanks to Andrew Jannings and Shane Kirby who worked all night one evening in June to ensure no interruption to network services)
- Vestibule in the Family Life Center (near the elevator) was completed under budget despite a few surprises along the way; this adds a huge layer of physical security
- The electrical issue in the Family Life Center kitchen has finally been resolved – no more circuit breaker issues!
- A new water fountain ordered and installed at lower hallway in Family Life Center (thank you, Garrett)
- New courtyard fence and gate (near the Sanctuary handicap parking) to enhance preschool and school security
- A contract was signed with Forza Security to ensure safety during Sunday worship and Wednesday evening activities. This replaces the Cary Police Department support which had a higher cost for less hours and was not always available.
[NOTE: RLS also signed a contract with Forza for school and after-school hours to be paid for by the parents of our 180 students]

During our upcoming December Voter’s Meeting, now scheduled for 6 December 2026 at 12:30 pm, we will be voting for three Council Members. Two of our current Council members will not be seeking re-election, so if you or someone you know is interested in serving the Lord in the RLC Council, please contact any Council members listed below.

Mike Haertling, President (505) 690-9929	Stephanie Beckett, Council Member (919) 667-8506
Lori Jannings, Vice President (919) 523-6619	Joe Bastante, Council Member (919) 239-5663
Mike Hahne, Treasurer (919) 749-7666	David Duncklee, Council Member (919) 417-9923
Jason Jennings, Secretary (813) 440-9112
Tom Bolling, Council Member (847) 922-9555	Ex Officio: Margaret Hyatt, Operations Director (919) 851-7248

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

Leaders: Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday

Christian Parenting - Questions They Ask

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm - Room 240, Family Life Center - September 9-April 21
Leaders: Pastor Zach Sarrault and Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director

Our kids ask us a lot of questions. Are we prepared to answer them? When was the last time we actually answered these questions for ourselves? As Christian parents, we want to be ready to answer the faith-filled questions our kids give us, answering them in a way that is faithful to God's Word. Who is God? What is the Trinity? When is Jesus coming back? Where is heaven? How do we pray? Why did He allow sin? Join us and bring your own questions as we grow in God's calling to be Christian parents.

Wednesday

New Why We're Lutheran: The Augsburg Confession

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm - Room 251, Family Life Center - October 14-November 18

Leaders: Matt and Tiffany Oettinger, Pastor Jonathan Blanke

Rooted in Scripture, the Augsburg Confession remains a clear summary of what Lutherans believe and confess nearly 500 years after it was written. In this six-week class, we'll explore together some of the biggest questions of the Christian faith. Along the way, we'll dig into Scripture, discover the fascinating history that shaped the Reformation, and see how Lutheran beliefs compare with other Christian traditions.

Whether you've been Lutheran your whole life or are still wondering what exactly makes a Lutheran, well, Lutheran, join us as we discover why it still matters and what it means for us today.

Suggested Materials:

The Augsburg Confession/Concordia Reader's Edition, The Book of Concord, Complete Book of Concord includes Augsburg Confession - all can be found at Concordia Publishing House (CPH).

If you can't join us in person, we suggest that you set aside a specific prayer time that day to pray for our Faith in Action campaign.

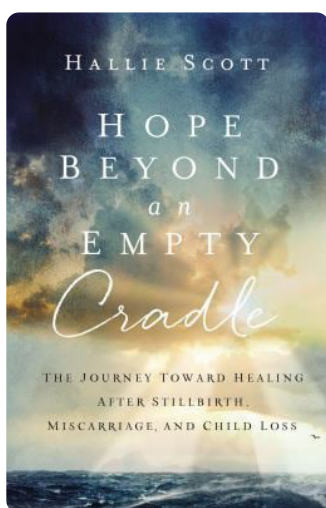

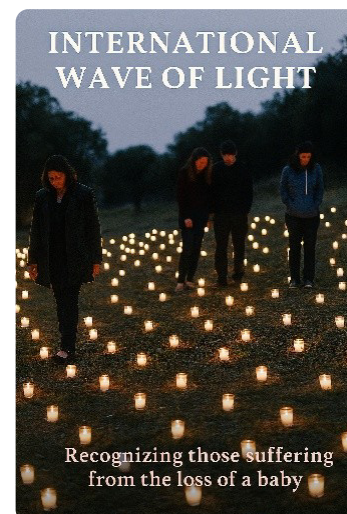

Hope Beyond an Empty Cradle

One of the main things people associate with Stephen Ministry is helping people through grief, and so it isn't surprising that the next couple of themed months will focus on different aspects of grief.

In October, and specifically on October 15th, we recognize National Infancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month, and the international wave of light invites people to light a candle at 7:00 pm on October 15th to show support to those who are grieving the loss.

There are no words for parents who lose a child either prior to birth or during early childhood. And there is literally no word to describe a parent who loses their child: children can be "orphans"; spouses may be a "widow/er", but there is no word to describe parents who lose a child.

Stephen Ministry can be a great resource when there are no words to describe the loss and no words to describe the emotion. While Stephen Ministry is not designed to replace professionally trained counselors or medical providers, we are well-equipped to support people during challenging times in life. The Christ-centered approach provides a message of hope. Stephen Ministers are called "Care Givers", but only Christ is the "Cure Giver". It is through that relationship that Stephen Ministers can be a safe space for people to express their grief. It is our "ministry of presence" and sometimes all people need is to know that someone is with them.

You can find the book pictured here in the Stephen Ministry section of the RLC Library (located next to the gym). There are no words...and sometimes silence communicates all that is needed in the moment.

To learn more about Stephen Ministry at RLC, click here. If you or someone you know who could use a listening partner, consider emailing the Stephen Leader team at stephenministry@rlcary.org and ask about how to make a referral to a Stephen Minister.

"Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

Outreach to the Community

Sleep in Heavenly Peace

All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. Across the country, too many boys and girls go without a bed — or even a pillow — to sleep on. These children end up sleeping on couches, blankets, and even floors. This can affect their happiness and health.

SHP provides all the tools and expertise that allow people with little or no experience to build all the components for a solid, wood bunk bed. It is always a fun-filled half day that ends with branding the beds. Fellowship is wonderful and the ability to solve a problem for others leaves everyone feeling a bit better about the world!

Mark your calendars for the Sleep in Heavenly Peace DOUBLE Bed Build Day on Saturday, October 17 from 9:00 am-12:00 pm in the church parking lot. We will need many volunteers for the build. Register today!

Thank you to all who joined in on the landscaping clean-up project!
We appreciate all your efforts in keeping the Resurrection Lutheran campus looking great.

October Health Focus

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month—a time to encourage awareness, early detection, and compassionate support for those affected by breast cancer.

- Know your risk: Talk with your healthcare provider about your personal and family history of breast cancer and other factors that may affect your risk.
- Follow recommended screening: Ask your healthcare provider when you should begin mammograms and how often you should have them. Recommendations can vary based on age and individual risk.
- Don't ignore changes: Many breast changes are not cancer, but any new or unusual change deserves medical attention. Report any new lumps, swelling, skin changes, or unusual discharge to a healthcare professional.
- Take care of your overall health: Regular physical activity, maintaining a healthy weight, limiting alcohol, and avoiding tobacco can support overall health and may reduce breast cancer risk.
- Encourage the women you love: A simple reminder to schedule a recommended screening or healthcare visit can make a meaningful difference.
- Offer practical support: For someone undergoing treatment, consider providing meals, transportation, childcare, help with errands, or simply a listening ear.
- Pray with compassion: Remember individuals and families affected by breast cancer in your prayers, while respecting each person's privacy and wishes.
- Use trusted health information: Encourage members to discuss screening and symptoms with their healthcare provider rather than relying solely on social media or online information.

Youth Ministry

Middle School and High School

Youth Groups are all up and running and the Middle School had a blast out at Camp Agape. The weekend goal was to have fun building our friendships with the foundation of faith. We did hiking, zip lining, glow 9 square, games, more hiking, Bible study, and so much more. The group even was assigned a cooking and clean up shift.

We also added a service component and built a decorative rock path along the poolside. Ask one of our Middle School Youth how many tons of rocks we moved. While there was not a whole lot of sleep to be had, we made a lot of memories and connections. Thank you so much to Pastor Zach and Heather Augustus for your help!
