Twenty-Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

Pastor's Corner for November 8-14, 2026

Let Justice Roll Down Like Waters
(Amos 5:18–27)

There are two ways to think about water in its natural environment. One is to see water as all-in-one-place. Static. Not moving. This is the situation with the proverbial mud puddle. The same is true of rainwater collected into a cistern or barrel. All-in-one-place water usually has nowhere to go and over time it will simply evaporate. There is, however, another way water in nature exists. There is water that flows: Water in rivers. Water in streams. Water bubbling up into natural springs. The first kind of water won't stay fresh and doesn't last. The second kind, which has a source, is constantly replenishing and is ultimately life-giving.

It is no surprise that in choosing an image to convey the gift of forgiveness and life that only God can give, the Scriptures repeatedly choose the picture of flowing, streaming water! Our appointed Old Testament reading for this weekend follows a chapter in the book of Amos where God is calling Israel back to Himself because they had lost their focus on that Life source. Despite the hardships God had allowed to fall upon Israel to teach them their own need for Him…they did not repent. “You have not returned to me,” He repeats over and over again, in Amos 4. It was as if the people were trying to find life in places where there was no water to drink…like they were wearing themselves out digging for well-water that wasn’t there! They had not repented of their sins. Their worship had become an empty, vain thing. Their offerings and music had become self-serving. What God had ordained for them so as to bless them with forgiveness and life had become something they could either take or leave. Was it any wonder God said He “hated” this brand of religion (5:21)? It wasn’t the notion of worship that was the problem. It was that the people did not find true justice and righteousness in God—the source of life—and live it out. The result? A “Day of the Lord,” a day of darkness and judgement, was coming!

It would be a dreary message indeed—for Israel and for us—were it not for one thing. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as Israel “reduced to One,” would be the One upon whom that judgement would fall! For you and me, the “Day of the Lord” Amos foresaw was the first Good Friday. It was, indeed, a day of darkness. It would be a day that the Holy One, the Son of God, would thirst on Calvary’s cross (John 19:28)! But now, by the gift of the resurrected Christ Jesus and the Holy Spirit, you and I know not only our sins and our inadequate worship…we receive the gift of sins forgiven and the thirst of our hearts forever quenched! Jesus gives the gift of living water for you and me and for all the world (John 4:13-14). Why dig for water in the wilderness when we have an ever-rolling stream that gives us life?

So, this weekend, once again, we ”let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-rolling stream!” It is all by grace…from the Source of Life…through thirsty people like us…for others. God’s Word and Sacraments are where it all begins.

Peace and joy in Him,
Pastor Jonathan

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ September 9-April 21
Room 240, Family Life Center
Leaders: Pastor Zach Sarrault and Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director

Our kids ask us a lot of questions. Are we prepared to answer them? When was the last time we actually answered these questions for ourselves? As Christian parents, we want to be ready to answer the faith- filled questions our kids give us, answering them in a way that is faithful to God's Word. Who is God? What is the Trinity? When is Jesus coming back? Where is heaven? How do we pray? Why did He allow sin? Join us and bring your own questions as we grow in God's calling to be Christian parents.

Along the way, we'll dig into Scripture, discover the fascinating history that shaped the Reformation, and see how Lutheran beliefs compare with other Christian traditions.

Whether you've been Lutheran your whole life or are still wondering what exactly makes a Lutheran, well, Lutheran, join us as we discover why it still matters and what it means for us today.

DIVORCE Care®

Schedule Changes
for 11:00 am and Live Stream

Please note the following schedule change for Holy Communion at 11:00 am and the Live Stream:

Starting November 1, the Holy Communion schedule at 11:00 am changed from its current position at 2nd, 4th, and 5th Sundays to 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays. So Holy Communion for the month of November at the 11:00 am worship will be November 1, 15, and 29.

This allows the balance of Communion/Non-Communion worship live streams to adjust properly once we move to worship live streams at 9:30 am and 11:00 am in November.

The live stream schedule will change from the 8:00 am service to the 9:30 am service, starting November 15. This change shortens the work time of the live stream team on Sundays.

Help decorate the church for Christmas, order a poinsettia!

Pick up an order form at the Information Tables in the Narthex and Family Life Center lobby. Cost is $15 per plant with a choice of red or white flowers. Orders are due by Wednesday, November 18.

Place your completed order form and check made payable to RLC in the office mailbox of Evy Suskin or mail to 100 W. Lochmere Drive, Cary NC 27518.

You may take home a plant after the 10:00 am worship service on Christmas Day. Plants not claimed will be donated.

Volunteers are needed at United Church from December 11-12 to help with parking, greeting, gift wrapping, shopping, and more. If you would like more information or would like to volunteer to work at the Christmas Store, please go to this link: christmasstorenc.com/volunteers.

We will be placing another group order, as the more we order the lower the cost. The cost would be between $12 and $15 each depending on how much interest there is.

If interested, please email margaret.hyatt@rlcary.org with your preferred name. Once we see how many respond, we'll get back to you with the final cost and confirm you want us to order your nametag(s). Thanks!
