Living as Children of the Day
(1 Thessalonians 5:1-11)

If you were alive and able to read in the 2000s and early 2010s you probably remember the "Keep Calm and Carry On" phrase that was popping up everywhere back then. It first appeared in white letters on a red background inside a rectangle with a crown on top. It apparently originated as a sign first designed in England during World War 2 to be displayed in the event of an imminent German invasion. Though it has since become a popular meme and evolved into any number of variations, the original evokes the encouragement to go on living life in the light of day despite a world that seems engulfed, at times, in the darkness of night.

It is a short, captivating message. But we have something better in the Scriptures this weekend.

Almost 100 years after the UK Ministry of Information first published the encouragement to “keep calm and carry on” there is still darkness in our world that comes in all shapes and sizes. You would not be alone if you read the headlines and became alarmed with uncertainty about the future…or if you felt the pull of a world where success, possessions, or opportunities for entertainment are chased after as if that was all there was. You know how social media can reward outrage more than encourage the honest pursuit of truth. You have experienced how easy it is for anger to get in the way of kindness. The temptation is to dwell in those places. St. Paul’s message was NOT that we should try harder to somehow become “children of the day.” His encouragement is that you and I already ARE. Yes, we stumble. Yes, we worry, and yes, we sometimes wander into the shadows. But Christ calls us, His baptized children, back to the light through His Word. He reminds us not only who we are, but whose we are! His sacrificial death on a dark cross and His victorious resurrection on a bright Easter morning is a sign that He is the only King that truly matters. All who live in Him live as children of the day.

Together with Jesus, we are no longer controlled by the “what if’s?” of an unknown future. Together with Jesus we seek truth in a world of confusion. Together with Jesus we show grace in a culture of conflict. Together with Jesus we serve our neighbors where the world would expect us to focus only on ourselves.

We do not create this light. Christ, the Light of the world, has brought us out of the darkness and made us His own. Living each day In His gift of forgiveness and in His promises, His light shines through us for others…until the new Day dawns when we shall see Jesus, our King, come again!

Thanksgiving to God for Sue Campau on Her Commissioning as Southeastern District Lay Deacon of Resurrection Lutheran Church

Join us this weekend as we give thanks to God for newly commissioned LCMS Southeastern District Lay Deacon Sue Campau! Sue recently completed her two years of distance education and was recognized in the 6 PM Saturday and 8 AM services last weekend. This weekend we will commission her at 9:30 and 11 AM, as well as provide opportunities for congregational well-wishes over refreshments after the 11 AM service.

A lay deacon of our church is someone who has been trained through the educational and coaching arm of our district (the LCMS Southeastern District) to assist the pastoral team in the ongoing Christian discipleship of our community. The work a lay deacon does reflects both our congregation's own needs and the lay deacon's own gifts or interests. Sue is actively involved in our congregation as a Stephen Ministry Leader, the lead for our church's Caring Presence Team, DivorceCare leader, and Altar Guild point of contact for the 11 AM service (along with the day-to-day tasks she takes part in). We are richly blessed to see her join Tom Gebbia as a Lay Deacon of RLC!

If you would like to find out more about becoming a lay deacon yourself, I invite you to reach out to Tom, Sue, or the church office (office@rlcary.org).

Peace and joy in Christ,
Pastor Jonathan

Surviving The Holidays

Saturday, November 14 at 2:00 pm

Room 151, Family Life Center

Resurrection is hosting an event for the holidays to help those who are struggling with divorce or separation and need support and guidance. Please prayerfully consider anyone you know who might benefit from this event.

While they may be experiencing deep pain and suffering now, joy will come in God's timing. Ask them to join a special holiday event called Surviving the Holidays, where we will discuss the hope and healing that God gives.

Contact Sue Campau through RCB, or the church office (919-851-7248, office@rlcary.org) for more details.

DIVORCE Care®

Schedule Changes
for 11:00 am and Live Stream

Please note the following schedule change for Holy Communion at 11:00 am and the Live Stream:

Starting November 1, the Holy Communion schedule at 11:00 am changed from its current position at 2nd, 4th, and 5th Sundays to 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays. So Holy Communion for the month of November at the 11:00 am worship will be November 1, 15, and 29.

This allows the balance of Communion/Non-Communion worship live streams to adjust properly once we move to worship live streams at 9:30 am and 11:00 am in November.

The live stream schedule will change from the 8:00 am service to the 9:30 am service, starting November 15. This change shortens the work time of the live stream team on Sundays.

Resurrection Women's Ministries

Preparing for Jesus: An Advent Tea

Saturday, December 5

12:00-2:00 pm in the Family Life Center Gym

Join your adult sisters-in-Christ for a time of fellowship, encouragement, and faith building, as we prepare our hearts and minds for this upcoming Advent season. (For Women of RLC and Their Guests)

Tickets are $10 each with support from Thrivent Financial. Any excess funds will go towards LWML Mites for Missions.

Please bring your own teacup or mug.

Interested in volunteering? Many hands make light work - thanks for considering!

Registration forms for participants and volunteers are in the church mailboxes. Registration deadline is Sunday, November 15.

Worship in the Park

Thank you everyone for helping set up, serve, and clean up for the Picnic! A special thank you to Garett for grilling the hot dogs and brats.

Thank you to Elena Balmes, Pastor Jon Richter, and Harry Albert for judging the Dessert Contest. Congratulation to the winners!

3rd Place - Sandy Wuori's German Chocolate Cake
2nd Place - Juli Blanke's Apple Cake with Salted Caramel Sauce
1st Place - Sue Campau's Tiramisu

Blood Drive

Thank you to all who participated in the Blood Drive! This year, we had 38 pints donated. We had 14 people from the public, outside of RLC, which helped us reach our goal, and extend our reach into the community.

A $500 donation to the Veteran's organization, Guardians Haven Project, is in progress.

Adult Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study
The Prophets: God's Oracles
Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am ~ October 18-December 20
Fellowship Hall
Led by Larry Cameron

This series of classes will examine the major themes of the books of the prophets. Topics include humanity's core problem, God's perfect justice, the goal of restoration, and God's desire for a permanent dwelling place among His people. The names and titles by which God presents Himself and the key metaphors He uses also reveal much about the God whom we worship.

Those attending need bring only their Bibles. Additional handouts will be provided.

Monday

Last DivorceCare
Mondays, 6:30-8:30 pm ~ August 17-November 16
Room 140, Family Life Center
Leader: Sue Campau

Resurrection is hosting a DivorceCare support group on Monday evenings. This 13-week program supports people who are going through separation and/or divorce and provides practical tools offering more than support — it also offers the love and presence of Christ.

Last Women of the Word (WOW) - Ordinary Lives, Extraordinary Grace
Mondays, 7:00-8:00 pm and Zoom Option ~ October 19-November 16
Room 151, Family Life Center
Contact: Jamee Thieme

Each week, we'll discuss portions of the book Ordinary Lives, Extraordinary Grace by Martha Vanbuskirk. Participants should obtain their own copy of the book, available through Amazon or Concordia Publishing House.

Identical class is offered on Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm in Room 151.

Tuesday

Tuesday Morning Bible Study
Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am ~ September 8-May 25
Fellowship Hall
Leaders: Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Wednesday ~ Supper & Scripture

On Wednesdays, plan to join us for dinner, then stay for a variety of activities, including adult Christian education classes, Confirmation, youth events, and music ministry rehearsals!

Christian Parenting - Questions They Ask

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ September 9-April 21

(We will break for Advent.)

Room 240, Family Life Center

Leaders: Pastor Zach Sarrault and Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director

Our kids ask us a lot of questions. Are we prepared to answer them? When was the last time we actually answered these questions for ourselves? As Christian parents, we want to be ready to answer the faith- filled questions our kids give us, answering them in a way that is faithful to God's Word. Who is God? What is the Trinity? When is Jesus coming back? Where is heaven? How do we pray? Why did He allow sin? Join us and bring your own questions as we grow in God's calling to be Christian parents.

Last Why We're Lutheran: The Augsburg Confession

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm ~ October 14-November 18

Room 251, Family Life Center

Leaders: Matt and Tiffany Oettinger, Pastor Jonathan Blanke

Rooted in Scripture, the Augsburg Confession remains a clear summary of what Lutherans believe and confess nearly 500 years after it was written. In this six-week class, we'll explore together some of the biggest questions of the Christian faith. Along the way, we'll dig into Scripture, discover the fascinating history that shaped the Reformation, and see how Lutheran beliefs compare with other Christian traditions.

Whether you've been Lutheran your whole life or are still wondering what exactly makes a Lutheran, well, Lutheran, join us as we discover why it still matters and what it means for us today.

Men's Ministry
Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00 pm (Fellowship at 6:45 pm)

Holy Land Christians & Crafts

On November 21-22, we will be hosting a nice display of handmade olive wood religious carvings from Bethlehem that are available for purchase in our Narthex. These carvings include olive wood nativity sets, crosses, Christmas ornaments, candle holders, angels, and many other religious crafts that would make wonderful wedding, baptism, Easter, and especially Christmas gifts.

These carvings are handmade by Christian families in Bethlehem who rely on sales for their daily bread. For several years, Bethlehem Christians have been enduring many hardships getting daily bread as tourism in Bethlehem has plummeted and access to other sources of income has been sharply restricted due to persecution and the ongoing war. Many Christians left their homeland. The Christian population of the Holy Land went down from 30% in the last century to almost 1% today.

Please help support our Christian brothers and sisters in Bethlehem by purchasing their carvings. Let us keep Bethlehem a Christian town forever. Proceeds support Christian families in Bethlehem and Beit Sahour.

Visit their website to see the carvings: holylandcsc.com.

• YOUNG FAMILIES •
gathering

Join us for food, fun, and fellowship on

There will be no other Wednesday night activities held.

The Christmas trees are here!

The Christmas Store is an outreach of United Church at 820 East Williams Street (Hwy. 55) in Apex, NC and exists to provide gifts at Christmas to children in low-income families by engaging volunteers in meaningful community service.

The store will be open this year on December 11-12 for families to shop. All toys collected go to The Christmas Store. All toys and tags need to be returned by Sunday, November 29.

Volunteers are needed at United Church from December 11-12 to help with parking, greeting, gift wrapping, shopping, and more. If you would like more information or would like to volunteer to work at the Christmas Store, please go to this link: christmasstorenc.com/volunteers.

Contact the Human Care Committee through RCB or the church office (919-851-7248, office@rlcary.org).

Would you prefer a magnetic nametag?

We will be placing another group order, as the more we order the lower the cost. The cost would be between $12 and $15 each depending on how much interest there is.

If interested, please email margaret.hyatt@rlcary.org with your preferred name. Once we see how many respond, we'll get back to you with the final cost and confirm you want us to order your nametag(s). Thanks!

Prayer Cards

Visual Faith® Ministry has provided prayer cards by the prayer sheets in the Narthex and the Family Life Center. We invite you to take a few cards home and add prayer notes for your family and friends for whom you are praying.

As you pray for those concerns, color the card, and then send it to the person with a note that says, "You've been in my prayers this week."

If you have questions, please contact Jamee Thieme through RCB.

Questions? Contact Erika Hulse, Children and Family Ministry Director, at erika.hulse@rlcary.org or 919-851-7248, ext. 62.

Youth Ministry

Middle School and High School

I am so grateful the High School Youth would like to continue our Friendsgiving tradition. It will be Sunday, November 22 from 6:30-8:00 pm.

What is it? Well, the idea is that everyone brings some kind of food to the table to share. Every year our table looks different. We have had tables that look a lot like the kids table with chicken tenders, french fries, carrot sticks, and applesauce. We have had appetizer tables and we have had dessert tables. Really anything goes!

The only thing I specifically ask that youth do NOT bring is any type of shellfish due to allergies. For those of you that are new to the group, will this be a dinner? Maybe. I never know but we will have lots of fun and share delicious foods and laugh!

For Middle School and High School Youth, the Hanging of the Greens service is coming up quickly and I am assigning parts. If your youth would like to take part and would like a speaking role, please email me. Hanging of the Greens Service is Wednesday, December 2 at 6:00 pm in the Sanctuary. We will meet around 5:15 pm.

Questions? Contact Jenny Piontek, Youth Director, at jenny.piontek@rlcary.org or 919-851-7248, ext. 24.
