Family Activities:

- Dim the lights and turn on a lamp or flashlight. Help each family member open his Bible to the key passage, Psalm 119:105. Read the verse. Remind your family that the Bible is true and tells us how to live for God.
- Cut strips of construction paper. Allow your children to decorate them using crayons and markers. As they work, remind them that the Bible tells us how to live for God. Show them how to place the Bible markers in their Bibles. Consider making additional Bible markers to give to other family members and friends.
