BIBLE STORY FOR TODDLERS:

God had made a promise with His people when He brought them into their land. God said He would keep His promises to them, but they must worship only Him. The people broke their promise and worshiped their neighbors' false gods. They disobeyed God. So God let other kings be over the Israelites. Life was very hard for them. They remembered how good it was when they obeyed God. The people asked God for help. God sent leaders called judges to help His people. As long as the judges were alive, the people obeyed God. But when the judges died, the Israelites disobeyed God again.
