OUR VISION STATEMENT

We want to see every member of the HBC family growing in Christlike character and on mission in our church, in our homes, in our city, and in our world.

FROM OUR CHIEF OF STAFF...

Who Will You Miss First?

SERVICE

David's sermon on March 5th has impacted me, and I have thought about it a lot since Sunday. Now, after five years of marriage, Fran is of the opinion that my mind is wired differently than most people's. All I can say is that I warned her prior to the ceremony. You will probably agree with Fran after reading this.

If David had come to me in a panic and asked for a fourth point for his sermon, I would have suggested the following.

Service can go UNNOTICED.

Raven Mosely works for Southern Cleaning, and she begins her day at 6:00am cleaning and resupplying various needs for our church. Raven is pleasant, always smiling and a hard worker with some of her most glamorous duties including cleaning bathrooms, cleaning up after children plus many other equally unpleasant duties. Most people would not even recognize that Raven exists, but I am privileged to see her in action every day.

So, what is the answer to the question "Who will you miss first if they decide to leave without telling anyone, Raven or Rick"? I submit to you that the first Sunday without toilet paper would make everyone miss Raven long before they miss me.

WHAT'S THE POINT?

Christians are expected to serve and use the gifts they have been given. People may not notice, but God will.

⁴Now there are different gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵There are different ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶And there are different activities, but the same God works all of them in each person. ⁷A manifestation of the Spirit is given to each person for the common good: 1 Corinthians 12: 4-7, CSB
